Kim and Laurie Wilson as Pirates at their haunted house

Apprehensive costumed kids approach the Wilson's Spooky Garage

800 Kids Visit Wilson Haunted House

by Charles Norman
The Wilson haunted house is becoming a Pine Falls institution.

Last Sunday more than 800 youngsters visited the Halloween decorated home of Kim and Laurie Wilson, some of them from more than 25 miles away.

Immediately after dark the streets and sidewalks of Pine Falls were filled with excited, chattering children. First came the very young, with an adult in tow. Then came the older kids. As the evening wore on, the chattering died down and the young teenagers bustled from house to house, busily filling their bags to the brim.

All of them were drawn to the tombstone and ghost decorated Wilson home, complete with pirates, (Kim and Laurie Wilson), a monster, (Joel Lamoureux), and a werewolf, (Vern Wilson). Eerie sounds echoed from behind masks on the front porch. Red lights, smoke and firecrackers in the garage gave an appearance of the underworld.

This year the Wilsons tried something different. Youngsters were asked to bring something for the Christmas hamper campaign. They responded. Two large garbage bags were filled with non perishable items, and $120 in cash was collected. "It gets them to feel good about themselves." Kim said.

He said he makes a trip to the US every year to buy the gadgets he needs for the show. "In the states they decorate their houses for the whole month before Halloween." He said. "You can't get anything like the variety here that they have there."

Next year he plans to make another trip south, this time he will be looking for holograms. One in particular, a woman's head floating in a ball, will probably be one of them. Wilson said the head seems to face towards you wherever you go.

Wilson asked the Community Voice to thank the people in there area who donated candy and pumpkins, and to thank the youngsters who showed up especially those who made generous donations towards the Christmas hamper fund. "Illusions Spectacular does it for the kids." He said.

An Apology to George Lalor

We would like to apologize to our readers and to George Lalor for errors incurred in the placement of his Article "An Historic Breakfast".

In two instances in the article the correct year, 1844, was mistakenly replaced with the year 1884.

We do recognize the importance of date accuracy particularly when concerning historical articles.

This was an editorial error, and in no way the responsibility of Mr. Lalor.

Again we apologize, and will be careful not to make this error again.

The regular monthly meeting of the Winnipeg River Women's Institute was held at Library Allard on October 19th, 1993. At the conclusion of the business meeting, several ladies joined the members for an evening of crafting. A few scraps of fabric, some ribbon, lace, beads, crochet cotton, a glue gun, and a liberal dollop of imagination and voila... lovely angels emerge. Each member, and all guests had the fun of making her own "angel." About a dozen and a half ladies were present, and not one creation was the same. Quite a tribute to the never ending imaginations of women. Many thanks to Maria Dupont, Yvonne Powell, and Linda Kemball for sharing their knowledge and glue guns with those of us who were lacking in the ways of "angel-making." Tuesday, November 16th, 7:00 P M at Library Allard... the Annual meeting of the Winnipeg River Women's Institute... the theme will be "Meet 'N Munch." Everyone is welcome, and bring a friend.

"bumper crop" of participants. The food was cooked in a rather unusual manner. Brand new garbage cans were given a layer of water filled cans, upon which was layered the vegetables. Turnips, carrots, potatoes, cabbage and onions were placed in the cans, and resting on the top of the vegetables was placed smokies, weiners, and garlic sausage. All was cooked outdoors over a firepit. The smells of the cooking food was almost more than one could bear... and the food was absolutely delicious! Many thanks to those great minds who think of such delightful and different ways to cook food. A very fine five piece band played old time music for the crowd, most of whom were clad in western garb, in keeping with the theme. A good time was had by all.

November's Dinner and Dance will be a pot luck with a multicultural theme. If you are looking for a fun evening, with good people, bring a pot luck dish which relates to your ethnic origins. If you have a small flag denoting your country of origin, please bring it along as well. This dinner and dance will take place on Saturday November 13th, cocktails at 5:30, and dinner at 6:30. Get your tickets early, as these events are always a sellout.

Flu Shot Program

The flu shot program, which took place on October 15th, was a resounding success. More than eighty persons took advantage of the opportunity to be vaccinated against the flu. This number was a bit higher than the flu shot program of 1992. The continued success of programs such as these are completely dependent on the usage of people of this community.

LITTLE NEWS

The next general meeting of the Senior Scene will be held on Tuesday, November 9th, 1993 at 1:30 P M at the Senior Scene, 1 Ateah Road, Victoria Beach.

Remember the Community Advisory Meeting, with Constable Scott Sheppard of Powerview Detachment. This meeting is scheduled for Monday, November 29th, 1993 at 7:00 P M at the Senior Scene. Remember if you want to make a difference in your community, you have to make some effort to be involved.

Another date to remember is Saturday, December 4th... the Annual Bazaar, time, 11:00 A M to 1:00 P M. Bazaars are always such fun events, so many things to see, and touch and buy! These seniors meet each Tuesday afternoon to make the items which are sold on the day of the Bazaar. Try to support your community seniors.

Some Thoughts From Walter Whyte School

There are some great reminders to parents to be found in the November issue of the Walter Whyte School newsletter. This newsletter is sent to all parents with children in this particular school, but the information given will apply to all children everywhere. With the imminent arrival of (ugh) winter, there are some things parents should remember to do for their children. The first of these is to be watchful of the clothing worn by our children. Accidents are not pleasant, and particularly to children, so we as parents must be cautious to see that our small fry have their scarves tucked inside their parka, and all drawstrings are tied. Loose clothing can easily be caught on playground equipment as a child plays. Protect your children from injury as well as the cold weather. The Great Owl Book Fair to be held at Walter Whyte on Tuesday, November 9th. The Remembrance Day service to be held on Wednesday, November 10th, at 10:45 A M. School closed on November 11th, and 12th. The Baking and Craft Sale to be held on Thursday, November 25th, 7:00 P M in the gym.

Remembrance Day

As long as people of this universe engage in wars, there will be veterans. Today's society, however, seem to view the observance of Remembrance Day as nothing more than a paid holiday. The children who have little in their young lives which relates to war (thank heaven) except those scenes of some horror in a far away country, view this day as merely a "day off."

Have we as a nation begun to forget the significance of the observation of this particular day? By no means does anyone remembering the proper significance of Remembrance Day, believe in any acts of war, but we should not forget those who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country, in order that we today may enjoy a "day off" in a country proud and free. To do so would be insensitive. Let us not forget.

During the hour long presentation, M. Mahe sang many songs, some familiar and some new. Many of the songs were "response" songs, and

Canadian Parents For French

Lynn Sharpe, pres. CPF Powerview.

The students of Ecole Powerview School experienced a change in routine on the afternoon of October 21. At 1:00 p.m., approximately 300 students from Immersion and Francais grades 1 to 6 and Regular program students from grades 1 to 3 filed into the gym to take part in a performance sponsored by Canadian Parent's for French. The afternoon was part of CPF Manitoba's "Cultural Tour", an annual event which sees Francophone entertainers travel around the province. Each immersion school division having a CPF chapter is offered the opportunity to host a performance.

The Cultural Tour performer this year was Alex Mahe, of St. Albert, Alta. His performance began with a spirited round of "Allo!" and "Bonjour!" and the high energy level set the tone for the entire "spectacle". The responses from the young audience were spontaneous and energetic. M. Mahe seemed to have no difficulty in getting various volunteers to assist him during his performance, and the students who volunteered should be commended. Their assistance added greatly to the show!

During the hour long presentation, M. Mahe sang many songs, some familiar and some new. Many of the songs were "response" songs, and these had the audience joining in with great voice. The presentation was conducted mostly in French, but M. Mahe did offer some description and direction in English for those students whose comprehension of French was limited. The song "Popcorn" offered the students the additional challenge of finding a rhyme word to fit the lyrics, both in French and in English. A few sight gags added to the performance and really kept the momentum going!

M. Mahe has appeared at festivals, concerts and tours across Western Canada and the North West Territories. He has hosted his own television show and has recorded two children's albums, Alex Mahe's Goodtime Train and Alex Mahe's Railroad Rendez-vous. "Goodtime Train" was an award winner with the Alberta Recording Industry Association. Alex Mahe's tapes may be ordered by contacting him at: 48076 Village Tree P.O., St. Albert, Alta. T8N 5V9.

Ecole Powerview School students seemed to really appreciate Alex Mahe's visit. If support of CPF is continued in the area, the school may look forward to another "Cultural Tour" next year. Please watch this paper for notice of CPF's annual meeting to be held in November.

What Agassiz Teachers Want You To Know

On September 9th, the membership meeting of the Agassiz Teachers' Association voted to protest the decision of the Agassiz School Board to lock out teachers for 8 days without pay. Agassiz is one of only seven school divisions that has treated its teachers so harshly (there are 52 divisions in Manitoba). Other school divisions (Winnipeg #1), which already provide for more opportunity to their students and teachers are not cutting their teacher's pay or Professional Development.

After full and open discussion the membership made a democratic decision that "in light of the loss of administration and professional development days, that ATA recommend that schools carefully consider the extra-curricular activities that will be offered in the 1993-94 school year, with the understanding that the potential for increased teacher workload may not allow one to continue with previous voluntary service," and that "The Agassiz Teachers' Association regards extra-curricular activities as voluntary and will support any individuals right to not volunteer for extra-curricular activities" and lastly, "that the ATA recommend that teachers not volunteer their time on divisional committees which meet outside of school hours". This is in response to the board's violation of the contract and agreement it signed with the ATA.

Teachers pay cuts are a direct result of past political decisions of the Board to keep the special levy far below the provincial average (46th lowest out of 52 divisions) despite the fact that Agassiz has the 13th richest assessment base out of 52 jurisdictions in the province. Agassiz last year had a special levy of only 12.8 mills compared to the provincial average of almost 17 mills.

The teachers of Agassiz School Division have had to give serious thought to our role as professional educators. Despite the fact that teachers will have fewer in-service days, we are still obligated and expect to provide the best quality of education for our students. We are committed to providing the best education possible given the resources and personnel available to us. For this reason we will be unable to offer the same level of voluntary activities that we have in the past.

Al Tymko, President
Agassiz Teachers' Association

Jackrabbit Ski Program to Start in Pine Falls

The Duck Lake Ski Club is sponsoring a ski program to try and promote cross country skiing with local kids. We plan to meet every Saturday morning between 10:00 a.m. and Noon. The program is geared primarily for kids between the ages of 8 and 13 but younger kids are welcome to come out if they bring a parent with them. The meeting place will be at the Pine Falls United Church and the cost of the program will be $10 / child / yr.

We hope to be able to teach the kids the basics about waxing ski's, how to dress, and different ski techniques, but most of all we want to get kids out on the trails, together with other kids, so that they can have some fun. The actual structure of each Saturday morning will likely change from week to week but we expect it will be similar to the following: Short talk on waxing or how to dress, followed by an outside game to get the kids warmed up, then a short lesson on ski technique, and then we get out on the ski trails to practice what we learned and get some exercise. Badges will be given for kids as they log in kilometre over the year.

The program is being organized by Wes Herdman, James Fraser, Dave Loucks, and Doug Hanson. We are encouraging parents to come out and help or to come out and learn something about skiing. Lets get our kids away from the TV on Saturday mornings and out on the ski trails where they can have real fun. Registration will be sometime in November. We are hoping to have ski swap on the day of registration so that we can get the kids ready for the coming season. If you have equipment that your kids have grown out of and you want to sell it or trade it, start getting it ready now. The basic equipment needed for each child will be ski's, boots and poles. Watch for the ad for registration in the Community Voice.

Ka-Wawiak Kids Halloween Bash

The Halloween Bash held this year for the children of the surrounding communities was very successful with a full hall. The event started with a haunted house in the basement which was very spooky. It took longer than expected, so there wasn't much dancing. Then came the costume contest. There were many great costumes making the judges job very difficult (see pictures this page). The children had a scary dog, witches brew, chips and a cupcake before the random draw. The random draw consisted of about 60 door prizes to give away. When the kids were leaving they were given a goody bag. This was sponsored by the Ka-Wawiyak Friendship Center and the surrounding businesses and organizations

Round One - The Test of a Team

The work is finally in on the Sammy Garza story. Garza has been the subject of conversation for Winnipeg football fans for the better part of two weeks and hopefully after his performance on Saturday we can now look at the team as a whole. The Winnipeg quarterback engineered a thirty-six point game for the offence at Franck Clair Stadium, and with our defence, that should always give you a win.

As a whole the Winnipeg team put up a solid performance against a struggling Ottawa squad. Our specialty teams put in another strong game, giving the Bombers excellent field position all day. With the benefit of position the defense was able to dig in and give up only one long drive to the Eastern Riders. The Winnipeg offence was able to put together a few impressive drives but largely started in, or just outside of, field goal range. It was, in short, the walk in the park one would expect.

In the game that was supposed to be the test match for the new starting quarterback the test went the other way. Ottawa, plagued by problems in their punting game, handed their defence a no win situation.

Haunted by offensive line problems the Riders had to rely on the pass with the run diversionary at best. The real test of the game was for the Winnipeg secondary. With the loss in the key position of safety (Jason Dzikowicz) the secondary responded with what was an admirable outing. Ottawa's receiving corps is as dangerous as just about anybody's but Tom Burgess often found himself having to throw the ball away. Anytime you see a quarterback sacked seven times the defensive backs have to receive a tip of the hat.

In all fairness to Sammy

Garza, this was not the test we (or at least me) were looking for. Before I have complete confidence in the Winnipeg offence to take us all the way I have to see at least three to four seventy-plus yard drives for major scores in one game. I do believe that they are capable of it. The problem is that they only have one more game to do it in for fun, before they have to do it for profit. If only the game was against a Western team. Toronto has a decent club, but what have they done lately? Lost at home to Saskatchewan.

Which brings us to the final point; Defense. If the Bombers defense can dig up three of their performances that have won us championship in the past, the path to the hall of winners will be much shorter. The defense has to walk out and annihilate teams once again. Once they strike the old fear back into opposing offences, we'll be able to bask in the glow of another cup win.

The biggest(?) quarterback shuffle since the Chicago Bear's Jim McMahon/Doug Flutie question has overshadowed an important fact; and that is that Troy Westwood has again won the Community Voice Victory Point for his eleven yard field goal to end the first half. I'm sure Troy knows that he will be instrumental in assuring Chicago's loss in Flutie won't become ours against him.
