Mill Buy-Out Progress "Significant"

by Charles Norman After three years of on again -off again discussions, negotiations on the management/employee buy out of the Abitibi Price newsprint mill in Pine Falls have been intensified during the last few weeks. Abitibi CEO Ron Oberlander and Provincial Government officials met, this was followed by intense negotiations between Oberlander, Fern Pitre and the Provincial Government. Yesterday (December 21), Pitre told the Community Voice that they were making "significant progress ... The results are encouraging" he said. He said Lac du Bonnet MLA Darren Praznik has been very helpful throughout the process.

Russian Delegates Visit Model Forest

Russian accepting presentation from Model Forest Delegation.

The Manitoba Model Forest played host to a delegation of senior foresters and forest researchers from Russia on December 16.

The Chairman of the Federal Forest Service, Valery Alexandrovich Shubin and an Aboriginal representative, Nikolai Sinyanovich Aktanko, the Chief of the Association of Northern Peoples of Nanaisky District, were among the eight delegates from Moscow and the Russian far east.

The group was in the Pine Falls/Powerview area on the first Continued page 5

A STORYBOOK CHRISTMAS

Walter Whyte School
 presents it's Christmas Pageant
 by Lorraine Neal
 THE ANNUAL Christmas Pageant staged by staff conducted entirely in French,

 "Comment La Sorciere D'Hallowe'en Sauva Noel," was very well performed by the Grade eights and nines.
 Children in grades two to seven sang the lovely "Le Gentil Pere Noel."

The musical play "Sto-

A sing along involving the audience followed the play, and everyone mellowed out singing Christmas Carols.
 When the last carol was almost sung, sleigh bells were heard outside, and what to our wondering eyes should appear.....but Santa with a and students at Walter Whyte School took place on Wednesday evening, December 15th.

 The colorful concert was presented by the children from grades kindergarten through grade nine, to approximately three hundred parents, grandparents, and friends. Principal Diane Brandson gave everyone a warm welcome, and wishes for a Merry Christmas.

The first performance of the evening was a rousing rendition of "Santa Clause is Coming to Town," by the Kindergarten and grade one children. A short oneact play, rybook Christmas," presented by students from Kindergarten through grade seven, was a visual and auditory feast.

 Skits presented as an integral part of this musical were humorous and touching. The children, particularly the kindergarten and grade ones, sang with gusto. Some of the songs heard were "Dreams and Wishes," "A Bad Rap,"
 "Let's Get the Story
 Straight," "Red Riding
 Hood," "Big Bad Wolf,"
 "Three Little Pigs," and a rollicking version of "Almost Turkey Dinner."

The grand finale of the evening was a play, "The Accountant Who Saved Christmas," written and directed by Cliff McIntyre, a teacher at Walter Whyte. The students did a wonderful job of presenting this play, which contained some fabulous satirical lines. The audience roared with appreciation.

REMINISCING ABOUT CHRISTMAS

(Or how things look better when we get older)

Find yourself thinking about how terrific Christmas used to be when YOU were a kid? Depending on what your age is, it probably wasn't all that great. I'm told....and some of this I remember too...that when those of the generation who are over forty were kids, all they got for Christmas was clothes. And happy they were to get them too! If you were lucky and had a clever father, you might get a wooden toy he made for you. Or Grandma might make a wonderful rag doll for girls.
 The Christmas stocking hung by the chimney with care might contain a lump of coal, along with the proverbial orange.
 Tucked into the toe of the sock was usually some fancieid little item.

There are some Christmases which I remember clearly for one reason or another. The one which stands out most clearly in my memory bank is my first born son's first Christmas. As I held this little six week old bit of humanity in my arms, feeling huge amounts of motherly love, I wished that his Christmases would always be spent in a world of peace.
 This must be a universal wish of mothers, for somehow it seemed so important to me in that moment. My thoughts were the same for each of my four children. Luckily they all have spent their lives in a country where there was peace.

The second most clearly remembered Christmas goes back to my early childhood.
 My father was rarely able to spend the holiday at home with his children, for he had to work. He left early in the morning, and returned home quite late at night. On this particular Christmas, I had asked for a watch, I didn't know if my wish would be granted, but hoped with all my childish might that it would.
 I had promised Dad (though he didn't ask) that I wouldn't open his and Mom's gift to me, until he came home from work. That was a clue

 .....perhaps it was indeed a watch. Or was it? The box was huge. It must have been two feet square at least. All day that box sat, mocking me with it's pretty wrapping!
 Every other present had been unwrapped. It looked so lonely.....but I HAD promised! The day dragged on, and finally Dad was home. I tore open the paper, then the box.....only to find another wrapped box, and another, and another. There were ten boxes in all. Each one wrapped with pretty paper. Finally the last one.....how small it was. Excited fingers opened that ever so enticing box, and there it was.....a watch. It was the most beautiful one I'd ever seen! Of course that was my most prized possession for many years.

Finally one year Christmas took on a not so happy aspect. I had learned that I was expected to host the family dinner for BOTH sides of the family. Wow that meant 26 people! So I gritted my teeth, baked, and baked for weeks prior to Christmas Day, and on the great day, stuffed a twenty six pound turkey + cooked twenty pounds of potatoes and what seemed like a ton of other vegetables. I also had other food, the usual cabbage rolls, ham and meat balls.

 The guests all assembled, took their places at the table, and when the great mass of food was served, began to feast.
 When I was finally able to sit down to eat (my children were very young, still requiring assistance from parents) there was nothing left for my plate but a bit of mashed potato-toes and turkey skin. This does not rank as one of the most impressive days of my life.

However to all readers, you are wished a happy holiday, May there always be peace in your world. I hope you don't have to wait sixteen or seventeen hours to open your gifts, and indeed that there are gifts for you TO open. Quick word of warning.....if you are having lots of guests, and have small children, load up your plate, and when the children have been fed, nuke your food!

 That way you won't be stuck with cold mashed potatoes and dry buns!!!

Christmas is such a wonderful time of year, we all seem to enjoy it, but why are we happy and jovial for such a short time? The celebration of Christmas would not be difficult to carry through all year. Oh sure we don't have to indulge in rich food all year, or exchange gifts.....but couldn't we just treat each other the entire year the way we do at Christmas? Are we such a shallow nation that we are able to ignore respect and good grace, practicing being nice only in December?

THANKYOU

We would like to thank our family and friends for putting on the wonderful party celebrating our 50th Wedding Anniversary.
 We would also like to thank all those who attended which made the party so successful.
 Also to those who were unable to attend and sent us congratulations, cards and gifts.
 We are truly appreciative Sincerely Joan and Homer

Russian Delegation Visits Model Forest. Continued

log of a western Canada tour of the Model Forest Network.

The Russian experts are considering an opportunity to become a part of Canada's International Model Forest Program that already includes Mexico.

On hand to bring greetings on behalf of the Government of Canada was David Ifody, M.P. Provencher, and Tom Ramsay representing Ron Fewchuk, M.P. Selkirk Red River. As well Darren Praznik M.L.A. for Lac du Bonnet extended greetings from Premier Gary Filmon and the Manitoba Government.

After receiving a brief overview of the Global Positioning Systems and Geographical Information Systems and touring the Manitoba Model Forest offices, the delegation was whisked off to the Powerview School for public presentations from the Manitoba Model Forest Board of Directors and Group Leaders. The group was then treated to a performance by Powerview School students of two Russian dances. Following the students there was an exhibition of First Nations songs by the White Eagle Drum from Sagkeeng First Nation. The delegation enthusiastically joined the traditional dancers from Sagkeeng and Brokenhead First Nations in the Grand Entry and Honour Song.

A private luncheon brought an open forum for gift presentations. Among presenters were Jake Hoepfner, M.P.

Lingar Marquette, Reeve Dave Marion of the R.M. of Lac du Bonnet, Mayor Glen Hirst of the Village of Lac du Bonnet, Fern Pitre, Abitibi Price Mill Manager, Clarence Kennedy on behalf of the Aboriginal Peoples, and Mike Waldram, General Manager of the Manitoba Model Forest. President of the Manitoba Model Forest, Dave Rannard, presented Minister Shubin with an original First Nation painting while the other delegates received prints. The Chief of the Association of Northern Peoples of Nanaisky District commented on how his print depicting a log cabin reflected his peoples' way of life.

The delegation left for a brief tour of the Belair Provincial Forest before departing for their next stop Saskatchewan and on to the British Columbia.

Gingerbread Houses at Powerview School

For the past two weeks the grade seven class Home Economics students were kept busy building gingerbread houses. First came preparing the dough; measuring, mixing, kneading, wrapping and storing it away for the next class.

The following class saw 35 students busily rolling out the dough and carefully cutting and baking the deliciously smelling gingerbread.

In the third class students whipped up frosting and skillfully constructed their houses, eight in all.

Complete with frosting and strategically placed candies, the students eagerly awaited the answer to, "May we eat them now Mrs. Jones?"

Six periods to prepare - six minutes to gobble up.

A Message from

EMMANUEL J. BOUVIER

Many thanks to all whom I have had the pleasure of serving as your insurance agent during the past fifty years or so, the last 15 being with THE CO-OPORATORS.

The most rewarding of these years has been the friendship which has developed with my clients, many of whom go back two and three generations. A Hearty thank you to all!

I Will take this opportunity to wish all of you a Merry Christmas and many years of Health, Happiness and Prosperity!

Christmas Hamper Campaign

Norm Pachowski, this year's Christmas hamper chairman said the organization put out 59 hampers this year down from 67 last year.

The hampers contained turkeys, ham, canned vegetables and fruit, cereal, ice cream, milk, soft drinks and toys.

The ice cream and mild were donated by Sheil's milk distributors, the soft drinks by Northern, Coca Cola and Pepsi, and the toys by Pro-Hardware.

Deliveries, to Hollow Water, Seymourville, Manigotagan, Little Black River and locally were taking place up till 10 PM Monday evening.

The local committee were also able to help out Sagkeeng, who have there own hamper program.

Pachowski said being chairman of the committee was very rewarding because of the generosity of the community.

He said the business community were very generous and would like to thank the many groups and individual who made contributions toward the campaign.
