Santa wears scarlet at Sagkeeng

Editorials

Christmas Spirit is alive and well

Constable Lowden's matter-of-fact way of describing the collection and delivery of Christmas gifts, and the formal picture on our front page, do not do justice to what he is doing. He leaves it up to our imagination. Imagine, for instance, a light aircraft landing on a frozen lake at a remote community where the forest meets the arctic tundra. Inside RCMP officers don regulation parkas over their scarlet tunics. Waiting for them is a power toboggan towing a sled.

Toys are loaded into the sled and the small group makes its way to excited children in a nearby community.

A power toboggan is not a team of reindeer, and the sound of its engine nothing like the sound of sleigh bells, but a sled is a sleigh.

Many years ago an eight year old little girl named Virginia wrote to a California newspaper asking if there really was a Santa Claus. She said if she read it in the paper she would know it must be true. (This was a long time ago)

The editor rose to the occasion. He wrote of the spirit of Christmas, and ended his editorial with the now famous quotation "Yes, Virginia, there really is a Santa Claus."

As Constable Lowden and his fellow RCMP officers have shown, the spirit of Christmas is alive and well. And for many children there really, truly is a Santa Claus. His name is Tom Lowden and he lives in Selkirk, Manitoba.

Santa wears scarlet at RCMP investigate theft at Royal Bank Sagkeeng

RCMP Constable Tom Lowden, of the Selkirk Rural Detachment, has been busy this Christmas - delivering toys to 2500 children throughout Manitoba. Last Monday afternoon it was Sagkeeng's turn.

Resplendent in scarlet tunics, Lowden, and Constable Brian Jack of the Powerview Detachment, handed out box loads of gifts for Sagkeeng children in the Sagkeeng Administration Building.

Sagkeeng is only one of eight communities. By Christmas Eve Lowden will have visited Little Grand Rapids, Paungassi, Scanterbury, Lac Brochet, Bloodvein, Grandville Lake, Tadoule Lake, (NW of Churchill), and the Winnipeg Children's Hospital.

Lowden said seeing the joy and excitement of his own children at Christmas, and knowing that other children, especially in remote communities, do not have the same opportunity, prompted him to began the project. He solicits toys and donations from the private sector (all toys are new). RCMP officers and their families do the packaging, gift wrapping and delivery - all on their own time. Last Monday afternoon, at Sagkeeng, Constable Lowden was off duty, Monday evening he was back at work in Selkirk.

This year the Selkirk Rural Detachment had help. Two nearby schools, West St. Paul, and St. Andrews, collected gifts and donations, and then spent an afternoon with RCMP officers gift wrapping 800 toys. Lowden said gifts are delivered by car, aircraft, snowmobile, or whatever is appropriate. Last year (the first) they delivered 800 gifts. He said they hope to double this year total, and deliver 5000 gifts next year.

Apology to Val Werier

Our November 23rd Editorial could easily be understood as intending to imply that Mr. Werier was either a member of the Communist Party of Canada or has strong affiliations to the Party. It was not our intent to convey that impression and our editorial should have made that clear.

We offer our sincere apologies to Mr. Werier.

RCMP investigate theft at Royal Bank

The Powerview detachment of the RCMP are investigating thefts from the private accounts of Royal Bank customers at the Pine Falls branch.

Staff Sergeant Liebrecht said money has been taken from some accounts. They are in the process of determining which accounts are affected.

Liebrecht said they have no suspects at this time.

Wpg River Senior Services board and executive named

Under the name of Winnipeg River Senior Services, a non profit organization has been formed which will eventually attempt to provide desired senior services for the communities along the Winnipeg River, from Great Falls to Pine Falls.

A twelve member board has been named with representation from each community. Members are: Margaret Richardson, Brad Robertson, Bob Litchfield, Lorne Finkbeiner, Karen Papineau, Shirley Giesbrecht, Des Trudel, Eliane Boulet, Joyce Whitford, Leo Fillion, Loreen Carlson, Gunnar Postnicks.

The executive, elected from these representatives will be: President - Leo Fillion, Vice President - Joyce Whitford, Secretary - Loreen Carlson, Treasurer - Gunnar Postnicks.

Postnicks, Publicity - Lorne Finkbeiner.

Formal steps are in progress for the establishment of this corporation. If all these steps proceed as anticipated, the Winnipeg River Senior Services will be organized and operational in our area by early spring or summer of 1995.

Further updates will keep you informed, and we will let you know when we are 'open for business' and you can call on us for desired services.

Beaches

Eastern Beaches organizes business association

by Lorraine Neal

The newly organized Cottage Country Business Association held their initial meeting in the spring of 1994. This organization is endeavoring to set objectives and determine its strengths. The members of the group are committed to solid promotion of cottage country north of Grand Beach. The area has much to offer to families looking at recreational facilities and other amenities.

President Desi Trainor stated that the organization is developing a brochure highlighting some of these amenities and services. The group plans to rent a booth at the Mid Canada Boat Show, to be held in Winnipeg, March 1st to 5th 1995. This will present an opportunity to give thousands of people in Winnipeg information about the area. This part of the country has miles of groomed cross country ski and snowmobile trails, the finest white sandy beaches in the world, boat and snowmobile sales and service and a water craft Marina. The area also boasts many fine restaurants, stores, a world class hotel, service businesses, two golf courses, a mini golf course, several thousand fully developed cottage properties, and nine hundred unsold cottage lots. In 1996, a recreational community featuring a world class championship golf course will be fully operational.

Some of the issues of interest to members are the Municipal Act Review, changing of municipal boundaries, and the eradication of Dwarf Mistletoe. The group has also discussed the possibility of organizing a Winter Carnival.

The group is structured, a Constitution has been drawn up, and a logo is in use. At present there are twenty business owners who are members. There is room for more. The criteria for membership is simple... you must be a person in good standing within the community, and operate a year round business. There is a possibility seasonal businesses may be eligible for membership on an associate basis. Monty Vialoux of the Birchwood Hotel is part of the recruiting committee. If you operate a business, and are not yet a member, make inquiries. It could definitely be beneficial to your business.

The next meeting to be held in the Birchwood Hotel at twelve noon, Monday, January 9, 1995.

Following is a list of member businesses listed alphabetically:

Anderson, Bruce and Lynn B. W. Anderson Ltd. Anderson, Lorne Anderson's East Side Sewage. Benedict, Laura The Hair Shoppe. Danwich, Dennis and Laurie D. M. D. Electric. Einfeld, Brad Einfeld Bakery. Halgren, Glen and Cathy The Cottager/Guide. Hall, James Hall and Associates. Harbour, Herb Herb's Albert Beach Grocery. Kargus, Dave Traverse Bay Corner Store.

Beaches Nursery Raffle Successful

The Beaches Nursery School, located in the now unused kindergarten room at Walter Whyte, has, for several weeks, been successfully fundraising. The raffle draw was held on Saturday, December 17th, with the following results. The 50/50 draw was won by Norm Chubey of the Johnny's Drive subdivision of Belair. First prize, a turkey, was won by Leonard Hagberg of Victoria Beach, second prize a man's sweatshirt, was won by Betty Jones of Traverse Bay, and the third prize of a toy was won by Mrs. Joanne Skinner of Belair.

Laura, Tannis and all the organizers wish to thank all the supporters who contributed either by buying tickets, or donating the prizes. The goal was almost reached, thanks to everyone who helped make it a success!

RCMP stats released

Just to really brighten your day, here are some statistics released by the Grand Marais RCMP detachment. Now if this doesn't make you want to start up a Neighborhood Watch, and become part of the local Community Advisory Group nothing will.

These statistics, particularly the cottage break and enters are not too encouraging. The local law enforcement officers can only do so much. It is the permanent residents in the community who are the real eyes and ears. Keep your eyes tuned to your surroundings, take note, observe unfamiliar vehicles, or people loitering where perhaps they shouldn't be.

Cottage owners should be encouraged to take all valuable items back to the city in autumn. Do not advertise any impending vacations. Have someone keep the snow cleared from your walk and driveway.

Another way we can reduce these numbers of break and enters is to begin lobbying our politicians and groups like the Manitoba Association of Cottage Owners, or your own Cottage Association, to urge the Justice department and the whole judicial system, to start getting tough on repeat offenders, particularly young offenders. It is time we the people who are shouldering ever escalating costs of insurance on our homes and vehicles began to take back control.

Here are the comparisons for your Christmas period: The first number is from January 1, 1993 to December 31, 1993, the second is from January 1, 1994 to November 30, 1994

- A Special Thank You To: Carol, Grace and Valey
Door Prize: won by Darlene Cowie

In Memoriam Roslyn
In memory of my dear husband, Bill, who passed away Dec. 25, 1992. There is not a single day goes by, That I do not think of you, I'm trying hard to carry on, The way you'd want me to. My thoughts of you are special, My feelings will never die, Two years ago you left me, And still I often cry. Of all that life has given me, And all that's left to do, I'll never know a greater gift, Than the years I spent with you. Always lovingly remembered and missed, wife Anne
