CHIEF FONTAINE ACCUSED OF CORRUPTION

Sagkeeng Chief Gerry Fontaine

SAGKEENG ELECTIONS CHALLENGED

John Skeet, an unsuccessful candidate for council in the Sagkeeng First Nation elections held March 28, has filed an appeal asking that the election for Chief and Council be set aside.

The appeal, an affidavit addressed to the Governor General in Council, (Federal Cabinet) cites contraventions to the Indian Act relating to band elections, and makes allegations of corrupt practices on the part of Chief Fontaine.

The affidavit states that Fontaine received twelve cheques totalling $6,432 for which there was no evidence of approval by a quorum of council.

The section of the Indian Act dealing with band council elections specifies that elections be held on a community wide basis. John Skeet's affidavit states that there were two voters lists - North Shore and South Shore - contrary to this provision.

He also states that secrecy of voting was not provided, an advance poll was advertised but not held, electoral officers were not bilingual, and therefore not able to properly instruct elders in voting procedures, and spoiled ballots were not identified in the final tally.

His sworn affidavit also states that Chief Fontaine was not elected by a majority of votes of band electors, and one candidate for council, Earl Fontaine was not ordinarily a resident of the reserve, and therefore not eligible to be a candidate.

The Sagkeeng Chief and Council called a meeting Tuesday, May 23, to discuss the issue. It was reported to the Community Voice that Chief Fontaine explained that the twelve cheques in question were to reimburse him for personal contributions made to band members. A petition will be circulated to confirm the chief and council's election, and Chief Fontaine will be setting up a task force to ensure that there will be no repetition of the problem.

At press time The Community Voice was unable to confirm details of the May 23 meeting and was unable to contact Chief Fontaine for his comments.

4P this year?

There may be a 4P festival this year.

A Red River Community College tourism student, Naomi Monkman from Silver Falls, has been hired by the LaVerendrye Trail. She will be meeting with people in the community who have been active in previous 4P festivals to see if there is any interest in reactivating the festival. If she is able to put together a working committee, the LaVerendrye Trail will make her available full time to act as 4P coordinator.

LaVerendrye Trail Coordinator Jaquie East-Ming said the 4P was a major festival, and a major tourist attraction on the LaVerendrye Trail route. She said she hopes Monkman will find that there are enough people interested in re-establishing the Labour Day event this year.

Double or nothing!

Arnold Krivda plays the same Lotto 6/49 numbers every week. The same numbers his mother uses on Super 7.

He played those numbers for the May 10 draw, forgot it, and bought another ticket with the same numbers. Both of them were winners - five numbers and the bonus number - at $88,627.40 each.

He claimed his winnings the next day - a total of $177,254.80.

Krivda bought his tickets at the Pine Falls Service Centre. After he had collected his winnings he went back to the store and gave the manager $500 to be distributed amongst the employees. Peter Waligura said it "was very much appreciated."

Flett asks for a recount

Bill Flett, Liberal candidate in last month's provincial election, has asked for a recount, but not for the usual reason. He came within 16 votes of getting 10% of total votes cast. 10% is the magic number. If a candidate gets 10% of total votes cast in a provincial election he gets half his election expenses paid for by the provincial government. Flett spent close to $23,000 on his campaign - and raised less than $3,000. He has mortgaged his house to cover the difference.

Flett blames his poor showing in the election on the federal Liberal government's gun control legislation.

In normal circumstances

a recount is the result of a close election, and while the issue is in doubt the winner can not take his seat in the legislature. The election act did not foresee the possibility of a recount for Bill Flett's reasons, as a result Darren Praznik cannot take his seat in the legislature until after the recount - expected next week.

The choice of the Victoria Day weekend for the Metis Rendezvous is proving to be the right one. The Metis Rendezvous has all the earmarks of becoming one of the major festivals in the region. If the 4P festival is successfully revived there will be four summer festivals along this stretch of the Winnipeg River; the Metis Rendezvous in May, Lac du Bonnet's Canada Day celebration July 1, Sagkeeng's Gathering in August, and the 4P on the Labour Day weekend in September.

With all these festivals spread over the summer months, and all of them on the LaVerendrye Trail, they will undoubtedly become a focal point of Laverendrye Trail marketing strategy. All of them will bring visitors to the area. Service industry businesses will benefit and jobs will be created.

The half a dozen or so people who organised this years Metis Rendezvous are to be congratulated in developing what will certainly become a permanent and successful institution in the years to come.

RURAL CRIME WATCH

SHOPLIFTING
Shoplifting is Stealing.....and IS a Criminal Act

With the advent of summer in the tourist and seasonal areas, both business owners and parents may benefit from some facts on the problem of shoplifting.

You shoplifted for "kicks" - but those "kicks" can haunt you forever.

THE FACTS

• Stealing is a crime, whether the stolen item is worth five cents or five hundred dollars.

• A store official can stop, detain, and have you arrested, if there is reasonable evidence that you have taken something.

• More and more, specialized surveillance and detection equipment is being installed in stores.

• Most job applications ask if you were ever arrested. Those with an arrest record are the least likely to get the job.

• A job that requires bonding, even that of a stock boy, will probably be closed to the youth with a record.

• With a police record it can be difficult if not impossible to go into any business or profession where a special licence is required, such as law, real estate or insurance.

• A criminal record can keep you out of college or professional school. You can also be denied admission to a foreign country because of a criminal record.

WHAT CAN PARENTS DO?

1. Talk to the youngsters. Explain that shoplifting is a crime and that a criminal record is a lifelong shadow.

2. Emphasize that going along with the crowd for fear of being "chicken" is the coward's way out.

3. When youngsters go on group shopping expeditions, know how much money your son or daughter had, where the group is going, what they expect to buy.

4. If your son or daughter comes home with more merchandise than he or she has money to buy, ask about it. And don't take easy answers about where it came from. Sales slips are proof of purchase.

5. Outlaw all clothes swapping unless the parents on both sides know what's being exchanged.

6. Set the right example.

Opinion

French Immersion Education

To the editor

There has been much debate regarding the cost and rational for providing a French Immersion program in the Beausejour area. Agassiz School Division has offered a cost effective French Immersion program for more than a decade graduating students from Beausejour and Powerview. And contrary to what detractors would have us believe, it does not cost more to educate children in two languages in this division.

The cost for French Immersion in this division is $430 LESS per student than it is for the English program, or a total of over $170,000 in savings for the 399 students in the French Immersion program. There are a couple of reasons for this. Firstly the division receives a $250 provincial grant for each French Immersion student. Secondly, many of the French Immersion teachers receive lower salaries because they generally have less teaching experience and are therefore placed lower on the salary grid.

In Beausejour Elementary School with the proposed combined classes for 1995/96, French Immersion class sizes will average 23.7 students from grades one to four and the English program will average 21.2. The average cost per student is $95 per student less in French Immersion because of the larger class sizes and the other factors mentioned above. At the Edward Schreyer School the average cost per student in the Immersion Program is the same as the English program even though the pupil teacher ratio is lower. This is due to teachers receiving an average of $10,000 less annual salary than those in the English program as they have less teaching experience and are placed lower on the salary grid.

In Powerview where there is a much larger French Immersion program, the cost is $1,200 lower per student than that of the English program. Again, this is due to the grant and the average French Immersion teachers salary being close to $8,000 less than that of English teachers salaries.

The division would not necessarily save money if the grades 9 to 12 in the French Immersion program at Edward Schreyer School was eliminated. There are 27 students in these grades and if as few as 10 students decided to continue their French Immersion in another school division, Agassiz School Division would incur a small net loss. However, if all 27 students decided to continue their French Immersion education, the division would have a net loss of $87,000. Agassiz School Division would lose the provincial grant of approximately $2,800 per student, and lose the $250 French Immersion grant per Full Time Equivalent student. In addition the Division would have to pay a $1,853 non-resident fee for each student sent to another School Division.

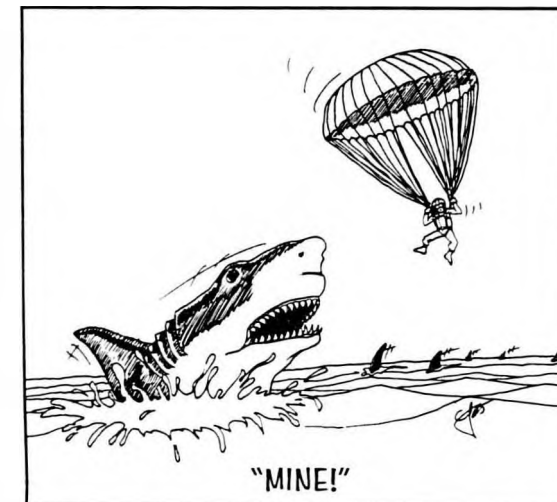

If French Immersion was eliminated the children would still have to be taught. This would require other English teachers to be hired at extra costs. It is still cost effective to offer French Immersion Programs. If numbers were to rise in the French Immersion Program the division could actually realize further savings.

Some families have moved into Beausejour in part, because French Immersion programs were offered. A parents' decision to enroll their children in French Immersion programs remains an educational, and not a political, decision. Parents should have the right to determine which courses their children can and should take. For this reason, and the lower cost of programs, Beausejour area residents should support French Immersion programs.

Egon Hartwich,
Chairman of the Board

Hollow Water Cadets on parade

Hollow Water cadets good role models

"Today you make me proud to be standing here watching you." Hollow Water Chief Larry Barker told Unit 3039, Hollow Water First Nation Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps at their third annual inspection at the Wanipigow School May 20. "You are good role models."

The cadets did a superb job. Beginning with the Parade of Colours, a General Salute after the arrival of the reviewing officer, Lt. Col Bakke, a march past before and after the speeches, and ending with lunch in the school cafeteria. The Corps drilling was first class, and the colour party did the unit proud.

Speaking to the cadets after the presentations Lt. Col. Bakke said "The primary objective is to instill within you a sense of self worth and self discipline. Where there is no vision the people perish." He said.

The Ken Wood Trophy, named in honour of Hollow Water Second World War veteran Ken Wood, was awarded to Sergeant Maurice Williams for Best Overall Cadet.

The Albert Wood Memorial trophy, for the Most Improved Cadet, was awarded to Cadet Derek Bird.

The George Mann Trophy for Best Female Cadet was awarded to Sergeant Daphne Sinclair.

The Gabriel Clark Trophy for Best Uniform was awarded to Sergeant Vicki Bushie.

The Leon Fontaine Trophy for Best Male Cadet was awarded to Sergeant Maurice Williams.

In a press release the Hollow Water First Nation Cadet Corps 3039 provided background information on the Corps and the objectives of Canadian Cadet organizations;

Background

In June 1992 the Chief and Council of the Hollow Water First Nation took the initiative to sponsor a Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps. The main purpose of the Cadet Corps was to provide the youth of the Hollow Water, Manigotagan, and Seymourville communities with activities that would enhance their physical, spiritual, and mental growth.

After three years of operation we have seen the benefits of the Cadet Corps. The youth of the communities have more confidence in themselves, are more aware of the needs of their communities, have an ever increasing enthusiasm to learn new skills, to challenge new horizons, and are willing to partake in various community activities.

The current attendance/membership is 47 cadets.

The Cadet Corps program is based on four levels: Green Star, Red Star, Silver Star, and Gold Star.

Cadets who complete the first two levels obtain one complete credit as part of their regular education through the Frontier School Division.

Cadets who complete the final two levels gain an additional full credit as part of their regular education through the Frontier School Division.

Demand for Hollow Water First Nation Cadet Corps

There is a great demand for the Cadet Corps unit to strut their mettle at parades, special functions, and as guest speakers.

The Cadets parade at special functions and events such as remembrance day, funerals, grand openings, and Treaty Day celebrations. Requests come from various First Nations throughout the province, the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs, and other corporate entities. The Cadet Corps recently provided the Honour Guard at the Frontier School Division spring conference held at the International Inn in Winnipeg.

Canadian Cadet Organizations

Canadian Cadet Organizations draw their authority from the National Defence Act of Canada. Army Cadets while not part of the Canadian Forces, are sponsored by the Army Cadet League of Canada in partnership with the Department of National Defence.

Royal Canadian Army Cadets follow basic military traditions including the wearing of a uniform and the learning of military drill. These traditions increase self-awareness, personal pride, and teamwork. Cadets make new friends while learning skills in leadership, abseiling, first aid, orienteering, music, sports, parachuting, target shooting, search and rescue, biathlon, public speaking, canoeing, mountaineering, and camping.

Individuals who have reached their 12th birthday are eligible to join the Cadet program and remain in the program until their 19th birthday.

Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps parade one night each week. Additional training nights for band and competition teams may also be offered. Cadets also participate in occasional day trips and overnight weekend training exercises.

There is no cost to the individual while a member of the Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps. Parade uniforms, instructional material, and certain associated gear are provided free of charge by the Department of National Defence.

Army Cadets are not paid, however, Cadets who complete certain summer training courses are paid a training bonus, and those senior cadets hired for staff positions during the summer months are paid a reasonable wage.

There is a requirement of a minimum of four qualified instructors for a Cadet Corps. The costs of instruction are partially covered by the Department of National Defence but the majority of the instruction is provided at a cost to the Sponsor or through volunteers within the Sponsor organization. To qualify for the Cadet Instructors List (CIL) the individual must be a Canadian citizen; be at least 18 years of age; have completed grade 12 education; be in good physical/medical condition; and pass an Enhanced Reliability (security) Check. CIL Officers also undertake appropriate upgrading courses unique to their branch of service.

Crocus Tea bright spot in rainy day

by Lorraine Neal

The annual Crocus Tea sponsored by the Ladies Health Auxiliary got off to a rather damp start on Friday, May 19th, 1995. In spite of the rainy weather however, a great turnout was experienced. At times the Pine Falls Leisure Club was bursting at the seams.

The ladies of the Health Auxiliary are certainly a busy bunch...there was an incredible display hand crafted items. These ranged from a beautiful hand made quilt, to an afghan, to knitted baby clothing, children's sweaters, socks, slippers and a lovely crib quilt.

The Leisure Centre tables were decorated with lilac cloths. Also on the tables were centerpieces containing lilac color flowers. The theme was truly spring, and it felt like spring with so many happy women enjoying their tea, coffee and scrumptious (and sinfully calorie laden) cheesecake.

These women work very hard in their efforts to raise funds to assist in the upgrading of surgical apparatus. They deserve a big pat on the back.

Winners of prize draws were: The Basket donated by Pine Florist - Joyce Whitford; Ball Hitch - won by Joyce Whitford; Cleaning Products donated by Powerview Auto Body was won by Norma Johannson; the $15.00 gas Voucher was won by Deb Horrocks; the Waffle Iron was won by Eileen Jaster; The Padded Basket was won by Chantel Cowan; the Bath Basket was won by Shirley Lalvallee; the Camera from Pine Pharmacy was won by Chantel Cowan; the $30.00 voucher donated by the Papertown was won by Eileen Jaster; the $25.00 gas voucher from Papineau Motors was won by Norma Johannson; the Package from Clarks Corner was won by Helen Haverlock; the Napkin and Note holder

Book Nook

by Cathleen Thurston

Little children always find lift-the-flap-type books to be fun and interesting so we've added some more to our shelves. In HIDE AND SEEK ANIMALS a pull on the page turns one animal into another - a pig turns into a bunny and a duck turns into a frog!

Professor Pipsqueak takes youngsters on a Touch & Feel BACKYARD TOUR where they can see ants at work or pat a mouse's fuzzy tummy. In the two Sliding Surprise books WHO'S THERE and WHO'S PEEKING, both by Charles Reasoner, you pull the side of the page out and a chick hatches from an egg, a gorilla plays peek-a-boo and a coon turns into a beautiful butterfly.

NUMBERLAND and ABC are two new Lift-the-Flap books. In ABC readers can lift the flap to find the answer to such questions as "...and s is for...?" and "...m is for...?" (To find out the answer to these and other intriguing questions come in and sign out the book!) In NUMBERLAND the reader is asked to find a certain number of different objects - some of which are hidden under the flaps.

Another new addition to our children's collection is FRANKLIN WANTS A PET, written by Canadian author, Paulette Bourgeois. Franklin asks his parents for a pet and then has to figure out which is the best one for him.

To round out our new children's books are two by Graeme Base. ANIMALIA is a tongue twisting alphabet book and THE ELEVENTH HOUR is a Curious Mystery in which the reader has to use "observation and deduction" to figure out who stole the birthday feast. Both of these books have superb illustrations with lots of detail and beautiful colour.

Come and check out the new arrivals and you just might see "Lazy Lions Lounging in the Local Library"!

Sunrise Singers Member Profiles Continue

Claudette joined the choir in 1992. She sang mezzo-soprano from 1992-94 and then alto from 1994-95.

Reasons for Joining: "Music makes me feel good. Singing is a mental health break. It puts problems on hold and I enjoy the camaraderie of the choir members".

Musical Background: "I was a member of the Pine Falls High School Glee Club, under the directions of Mary Hutchison with accompanist Gwen Welsch. It is a pleasure to be associated with them once more. At family gatherings all the time we were growing up we were surrounded by music. Childrens Wish Foundation run set for June 3

Charity Fun Run/Walk

Most parents try hard not to think about the pain of a child afflicted with life threatening or indeed even terminal disease. They try not to think of their own children being so afflicted. The truth of the matter is that there are children in this country who are afflicted with such disease and many live in Manitoba. Last year $1,400.00 was raised on behalf of the Pine Falls School Running Club. The money was raised by hosting its second annual Charity Fun Run/Walk. The charity run was a success due to the co operation and generosity of the many local business and the participation of the 175 registered runners and walkers. The funds were donated to the

"Patricia Fund."

The Children's Wish Foundation is an organization which grants the wishes of young children suffering from a life threatening or terminal disease. Wishes vary from meetings with sports super stars to trips to Disneyland. Like all charity organizations, demand far exceeds financial resources. It is hoped that with the continued support of the local businesses and community members a "Life Wish" can be granted to a child.

You and I can make a difference! Registration for the run is $8.00 per child under 18, $10.00 per adult or $20.00 per family. Each participant/registrant will receive a free light lunch, refreshments and a ticket for numerous random draw prizes. Registration forms may be obtained from most local businesses or by contacting Pine Falls School at 367-2254.

Donations to the "Children's Wish Foundation" are also being accepted between now and June 3rd.

COMMUNITY HEALTH WATCH

Developed for the dissemination of information which leads to better understanding between the community Health Care facility, Health Care Workers, and the community at large. Material used in this column provided by Eastman Community Health and Family Services, Pine Falls office, tel 367-2224. Your Health Care facility and You...

In the past few weeks, this column has provided information to the reader regarding some of the services available within the Pine Falls Health Complex catchment area. One new service which is available to residents of the Sagkeeng community is the Mental Health service, through Fort Alexander Health Centre. Please contact John Hawranik at 367-2208.

How many of you readers know that the visiting hours of the Complex have been changed to meet the ever changing needs of families/friends? Hours are now 8:00

All monetary donations of $10.00 and more are tax deductible. Donations can be sent to Pine Falls School, Pine Falls Manitoba R0E 1M0. For further information please contact Jeff or Bob at 367-2254 or 367-4308.

Organizers and runners of the Running Club would appreciate your support in making this a fun, family event.....and truly "a wish come true," for a child facing an uncertain future. We can do it!

AM till 8:00 PM.

One wonders how many people are aware of the high cost of health care today? Effective April 1, 1995, the cost of an outpatient visit by a resident of the LGD is $62.00. The same visit by a non resident is $80.00. Day Care is $285.00, while Haemodialysis is $215.00 per visit.

For In patients the cost for residents are $479.00 per day, a newborn costs $161.00 per day, and a non resident cost is $787.00 per day. These costs are staggering but considerably less than for similar services from a city hospital facility.

Want to know more about how the Health Care facility is run? How the day to day administration of your facility is planned and completed. You are invited to attend any of the regular Board meetings. Yes, the board meetings are all open to the public. If you have a particular concern, please call the facility (367-4441) and request placement on the agenda.

STANDARD FIRST AID & CPR COURSE

To be held at P.F.D.A. Office on four consecutive Mondays. Starting June 5th, 6:00-10:00 pm. To register call Pam at 367-9112 or 756-8571.

Baby Bill of Rights

Remember those first few days of parenthood? Remember the scary feeling as the reality and enormity of being a new parent began to sink in? Perhaps we tend to think the little bundle of joy we worry about has little or no feeling or emotion.....read on.

THE BABY BILL OF RIGHTS - I am your baby. Talk to Me

Sing, hum, babble, or even read the funnies to me! I don't know exactly what you're saying...but I need to hear you. And I do know what you mean, even if I may not know words. Like your voice tones mean, "I love you." Or when you yell, I hear..."You're a pest."

Unless you communicate with me, how can I learn? I learn from you. Hold Me

Everything is so big and new to me. I don't understand where I am. Or who I am. And I get scared. But when you hold me, I feel better. Your warmth warms me. Your bath and heartbeat make me feel I belong. Belong here.....belong to you.

Answer My Cry

I don't cry to get you upset. Or to get you mad. I cry because I can't tell you how I feel any other way. Maybe I'm cold.... or wet.... or hungry.... or scared and lonely. Answer my cries. You'll soon know what each one means. You won't spoil me. You'll help me to be a better baby - and to make you happier too.

Love Me. Like me. Loveme just as I am. Don't expect me to do what I can't do. Like being toilet trained. My muscles aren't ready yet. I know I'm messy. But I'm growing. Overlook my baby weaknesses. You're the most important person in my world. I can't make it without you. So get to know me. Have fun with me. And love me - just as I am.

I am your baby. compiled and edited by Lorraine Neal

Pine Falls Paper Co. "SAVE THE JETS" TRUST FUND

PINE FALLS PAPER COMPANY and its employees have contributed more than $5000.00 towards Saving the Jets.

Employees at the mill understand "we know what working together to save our future is all about - we did it with the help of good, strong leadership and recognizing the need to make some sacrifices. Saving the Jets is not an impossible dream! The key is to pull together. Good things just don't happen without a lot of hard work, support and perseverance. Over the years we received neighbourly support from many of you and this contribution is our way of saying thanks and we care."

When previous owners announced they would not invest the necessary funds to keep the Pine Falls mill operational, the future of the community and the employees were at stake. A management group led a successful employee buy-out - all employees gave up 10% of their wages along with a 5 year wage freeze. With a lot of hard work and negotiations, financing was secured to fund critical capital projects and the deal closed September 1, 1994. The company has yet to draw a cent on those term loans while construction of a $29.5 million effluent treatment facility is well underway, and the site is being prepared for construction of their $36.5 million recycling plant. 470 employees remain at work, and the community is thriving!

SLO-PITCH SEASON UNDERWAY

Pineview Mixed Slo-Pitch League News

The mixed slo-pitch season was scheduled to begin play on May 15th, but due to rainy weather the season was postponed until May 22nd, or until the rain stopped. With no ball being played a major excavation job was performed on Rupert Park diamond. The job that was done involved packing the infield and placing brick dust over top of it. The work was completed in an astonishing 4 1/2 hrs. by a great effort of numerous volunteers. The diamond looks great, and thanks to all of the people from the teams that came and did the work, way to go gang. Also thanks to Jules, Melvin and Omer for the use of there A.T.V.'s, Ovide Tardiff, Eddy Courcelles and Pine Falls Golf Course for lending their landscape packers, big E and Jagger for the consultation on installation of the brick dust, Mr. Pic's for the refreshments and to Ray Garand for the transportation of the brick dust. Again thanks to everybody, it was very much appreciated. The ball season will commence when the weather is willing, and this year will we again have 16 teams in the league? I'm looking forward to another fun season for everyone.

Other Mixed Slo-Pitch News

By Norm Viznaugh

The winners of the tournament were the BAD ATTITUDE, with runner up going to TEAM LAZY. The 3rd place team was THE YOUNG GUNS. We experienced quite a variety of weather over the weekend but Sunday ended up being a beautiful day. Congratulations to the winners, and thanks to Simon, Neil, Lance and Ray for umpiring.
