FONTAINE REJECTS FED'S SELF GOVERNMENT PLAN

"All areas should be on the table" - Chief Jerry Fontaine

by Lorraine Neal

"The Federal proposal unveiled by Ottawa on Thursday, August 10th, is nothing more than a reminiscence of the 1969 White Paper," said Sagkeeng First Nation Chief Jerry Fontaine. "That White Paper was nothing more than delegated authority. This proposal is similar in that it flies in the face of the inherent right of First Nations people to self government."

Chief Fontaine also stated "All areas should be on the table, there is no point in doing it piecemeal. I haven't read the proposal as yet, but I have talked to some other Chiefs about it. No, I do not support the whole initiative based on what I've heard."

Under Indian Affairs Minister Ron Irwin's plan, First Nation communities opting for self government would be able to choose from a list of powers which include policing, social services, land and natural resources management and the creation and enforcement of aboriginal laws. Areas which will not be open to negotiation will include foreign affairs, defence and management of the national economy. Areas of responsibility to be negotiated include environmental protection, administration of justice and gaming.

The new policy will require First Nations continued adherence to the Charter of Rights and Freedoms, the Criminal Code of Canada, and any other federal or provincial laws which supersede.

GRAND OPENING OF LGD ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Combination Grand Opening and 50th Anniversary a Classy Affair

by Lorraine Neal

The Grand Opening, plus the marking of the 50th Anniversary of the LGD of Alexander took place on Friday, August 11th, beginning at 1:00 PM. Reeve Ken Danwich officially welcomed everyone present. Reeve Danwich introduced Council members present and acknowledged M.P. David Ifody, M.L.A. Darren Praznik and Father Belanger.

Reeve Danwich then gave a brief history of the LGD of Alexander, which had its modest beginnings back on December 28th, 1944 by Order in Council No 1008/44 under the "Local Government Districts Act." At the time of Incorporation, the District was administered by a Government appointed Resident Administrator and supervised by the General Supervisor and staff of the Local Government Districts Branch in Winnipeg.

The first administrator was Edward LaFortune, and his office was located in St. Georges Creamery, which was owned by Father Donat McDougall, parish priest at that time. When the Creamery was demolished in 1950, the LGD of Alexander was forced to relocate. The office was then located in a number of homes on Chateaugay Street awaiting construction of a new office on PTH #11.

The new office was 24' x 24', heated by a space heater, it had one small sink on a corner, a good old fashioned rural outhouse in the back yard and a small vault. In 1969 an addition was necessary when it was decided to purchase a truck for the use of the Resident Administrator. Washrooms were not installed in the office until 1972. In 1980 a new council chamber was added to the existing building, as well as a new roof for the entire structure. Over the next eight years other improvements were made to the building including new carpets, paint and exterior siding.

Discussions were ongoing for several years regarding the need to either construct a new office building or renovate and add on to the existing facility. Preliminary plans were drafted, changes made, John Denoon was consulted to provide input and an estimate of the costs of an addition.

A resolution was passed in 1992, to hire John Denoon to prepare final plans. Tenders were called in the summer of 1994, and construction began in late October 1994.

M. P. David Ifody congratulated Council and Resident Administrator Rose Beaudry on the opening of their beautiful new building, and Council Chambers. M.L.A. Darren Praznik also spoke briefly on the good relationship between Council and his office. He congratulated Council on the acquisition of the building giving a brief history of the project. Reeve Danwich then read the written and telephone congratulatory messages which have been received as the LGD over the past few days. Presentations of a gift box were then made to former Reeves, Councilors, Administrators and employees. Members of the present Council and staff were then presented with a gift.

Reeve Danwich extended his personal thanks to Council for the undertaking of the office project, and to Administration Office staff for their support during the often trying conditions during construction. He also thanked Public Works staff who gave unstintingly of their time and efforts when required. He then turned his gratitude to John Denoon, project consultant, and Westwood Homes for a job well done.

Father Rejean Belanger

blessed the building and its contents.

Following the presentations and speeches, all present were invited to the front portals, where the ribbon cutting ceremony was to take place. Reeve Danwich invited a surprised Rose Beaudry to cut the ribbon, which she did with aplomb. An invitation was then extended to everyone to proceed to St. Georges Church basement join with Council and officials for the cutting of the Anniversary cake and refreshments. It was a classy affair.

Local dignitaries join in the ribbon cutting at the new LGD building in St. Georges.

Editorial:
They're just words!

I had to laugh. I would never go out of my way to offend someone, but it appears that I have unwittingly done so. In the August 10 edition of the Voice, there was a photograph accompanying an article on the First Nations 2nd Annual Gathering by Amanda Flamand. While putting the newspaper together, I included the following cut-line: "Performers in traditional costume at the Second Annual Sagkeeng Gathering last weekend"... Oops! I mistakenly referred to the historical style of dress of the Native American people as "traditional costume".

The Voice received several phone calls insisting upon an apology. Apparently the word 'costume' leaves a bad taste in some people's mouths. It makes them think of Halloween or clowns, and therefore makes the use of it in the present context disrespectful and racially insensitive. Now, I certainly did not intend to be disrespectful towards native culture, but I am terribly sick of being told which words I can or cannot use for fear of it offending someone's political sensibilities or agenda.

The dictionary definition of the word costume is "the mode of dress... of a given region, time or class", and is in fact derived from the word "custom"! So you see, the word is ideal for the situation which I used it in. But I will not use it again. To do so would be confrontational, and as I said, I would not go out of my way to offend someone. I have been effectively censored.

This politically correct dialect society is now developing is furiously depleting the number of usable words in the English language. So I try ignore it. Certainly, I will censor myself. I will not use profanities, racial slurs, or anything which I deem unsuitable or unsavoury. But allow me the right to reserve that for job for myself. I do not appreciate being edited by one group or another's notion that they can change the language to suit their purposes. D.N.

Wasaanebe - Shining Waters Heritage Region

In late October 1993 over 30 people attended a public meeting, held at Manitou Lodge in Pine Falls, to discuss the potential of community revitalization through the development of our heritage resources.

New United Church Minister Rev. Cindy Terry

United Church welcomes new minister

Pine Falls United Church is happy to welcome and to introduce to the community our new minister, Rev. Cindy Terry and her two sons, Sean and Mark.

Cindy was ordained in May of this year after having completed her Master of Divinity degree at the Vancouver School of Theology.

Prior to beginning her studies in Vancouver, Cindy taught the Dental Assisting course at Keewatin Community College for fifteen years.

The family is interested in sports - they golf, they plan to curl in the winter, and they enjoy fishing. Obviously they have come to the right place!

The Terry family are happy to be living in a small town. Cindy feels, as many of us do, that a town of this size is a good place for a family to grow up in.

Her hope also is to be an effective part of this community she now calls home. For anyone who would like to drop in for a chat or just to say hello and get acquainted, office hours at the church are 10 to noon Tuesday to Fridays, and Cindy will make you feel very welcome.

Resource Person

Catalogue compiled

The ESDA office is requesting help from the communities to get the names, addresses and phone numbers of all certified (at least Level 1 NCCPT Theory and Technical) officials and coaches in the Eastman Region (all sports).

This is being compiled so that local certified people can do clinics in our region, rather than having to pay people from the Manitoba Sports Federation in Winnipeg to do so. This would cut down on the costs of travel and other expenses. The catalogue being produced needs names from the north and south so that a wider range of clinicians is available. Your input is vital, so if you are willing to do clinics please contact Louise or Tracey at 268-2172 or 268-3841.

Opportunity Knocks

Why don't you consider these clinics, events and competitions in the Eastman area this summer?

*CWA Show, August 27, Birds Hill Park.

*Manitoba Combined Training Association, August 20, Mordha Farms, Tyndall.

*Springfield Polo Club Championship, September 2-4, Birds Hill Park.

*Manitoba Hunter Jumper Association Fall Harvest Show, September 4-6, Birds Hill Park.

*Manitoba Dressage Association Autumn Classic, September 9, Birds Hill Park. Manitoba Youth Olympic Academy 1995

The 1995 Manitoba Youth Olympic Academy will be held November 3-5 at Lakeside Resource Centre in Gimli. The theme for the academy is "Motivated by Excellence".

The academy will bring together approximately 50 grade 10-12 students from across Manitoba to share the Olympic experience. Featured at the sessions will be Canadian National Bobsled Olympian Clarke Flynn.

The academy is sponsored by the Manitoba High Schools Athletic Association, the Canadian Olympic Association, and the Manitoba Sport Directorate. For application information, contact Angela Morris at the MHSAA office (1-204-925-5643).

Food for Thought
What can you do to promote Fair Play? (3rd of a series)

As a parent, you can...

*inquire about who is coaching your child. Is the coach properly qualified? Is his/her philosophy toward participation the same as yours?

*make a conscious decision that your child's enjoyment of sport is more important than who wins or loses;

*practise a fair play attitude from the stands. Respect your child, the opponents and the referee;

*write to your newspaper editor, mayor and/or member of parliament if you are disturbed by the lack of ethics at any level of sport;

*recommend fair play policies to league or club officials;

*encourage other parents to promote honesty, integrity and sportsmanship; and *promote fair play initiatives sponsored by your local, provincial and federal governments. (Source: Commission for Fair Play).

Community Health Watch

The topic this week, and for the next couple of weeks, is: Necrotizing fasciitis/ myositis (also known as flesh eating disease.)

Necrotizing Fasciitis is more commonly known as flesh-eating disease. It is a rare illness that causes extensive tissue destruction and can lead to death.

Recent media coverage gives the impression that in Canada, the disease occurs more frequently than it really does. In fact, Necrotizing Fasciitis infects only one person in a million per year, and 50 to 70 percent of individuals recover from this illness.

Definition and Symptoms
Symptoms for Necrotizing Fasciitis include fever, severe pain, and a red, painful swelling which spreads rapidly. The disease can spread through flesh at a rate of an inch or almost three centimetres per hour. Death can occur in 18 hours. When the disease spreads along the layers of tissue that surround muscle, (the fascia) it is called Necrotizing Fasciitis. When the disease spreads into the muscle tissue, it is called Necrotizing Myositis.

The Cause

Necrotizing Fasciitis is caused by a number of different bacteria, one of them being the group A streptococcus. This bacteria causes sore or strep throat in children and young adults. Other symptoms include fever and a general unwell feeling. This same bacteria also causes scarlet fever, impetigo and rheumatic fever.

Ten to 15 percent of school age children may carry group A streptococcus in their throat and have no symptoms. It is normally spread through close, personal contact with an infected person, through kissing or sharing cutlery. Necrotizing Fasciitis is NOT passed from person to person.

The disease was first described in 1783 in France. It occurred sporadically throughout the 19th and 20 centuries. The disease seemed to be restricted to military hospitals, especially during wartimes. There have been some outbreaks of civilian populations.

A Canadian surveillance of group A streptococcus began in 1991 in Ontario. Data based on this group shows about 2 persons in a million get serious group A streptococcal infections a year. Most of these serious infections occur between October and March. Necrotizing fasciitis occurs in about one person per million per year. Recent reports suggest that these stats may change as instances of the disease may be on the increase.

In Ontario in 1994, nineteen cases of serious disease were reported to health authorities. Of those nineteen, six have died. This compares with nine cases in 1993, twenty seven in 1992, and twenty five in 1991.

Treatment
Treatment for Necrotizing

Fasciitis involves surgically removing infected tissue - including amputation if necessary, and giving antibiotics such as penicillin and other drugs.

There is no vaccine available to prevent group A streptococcal infections.

Research

One of the biggest problems facing researchers is how to make one vaccine against all the different types of group A streptococci. American researchers have recently reported that they may have identified a way to make a vaccine that could give partial protection against the bacteria, but it will be many years before such a vaccine would be available.

Next issue will deal with some questions and answers....

Two injured in Belair Accident

by Lorraine Neal

An accident which occurred on Lakeshore Road in the vicinity of Lunny Road near Belair Properties has resulted in injuries for two occupants of a car which rolled into a ditch. The driver of the vehicle admitted he was perhaps driving too fast for conditions, apparently lost control after a deer ran out in front of him. Five youths were occupants of the vehicle, the two injured were not seriously hurt. The vehicle was a total write off. No names were released and no charges are pending.

It's Carnival Time...

Who says summer is almost over? The good folks down at the Country Mile Mercantile don't think so. Audrey and Wendy have organized a good old fashioned carnival scheduled to take place on Saturday, August 26th, from 10:00 am to 3 p.m. They've hired a few kids to run some games, pump gas for full service all day, and generally keep customers happy. There will be games, hot dogs, prize draws and lots of in store specials.

Victoria Beach Seniors Scene

by Lorraine Neal

The annual summer bazaar which was hosted by Senior Scene of Victoria Beach on Saturday, August 12th, was a roaring success. The day was sunny and bright, not too hot, but the bargains awaiting the shoppers were! A cornucopia of delights awaited inside, much to the delight of shoppers.

There was a great assortment of crafted items, knitted clothing, especially for children, we saw quilted place mats, and other kitchen adornery along with beautiful ceramic gift ware.

The bake tables were as busy as they always are. There are many culinary delights waiting for just the right palate! The tea tables were busy too, often the dry parched throat had to wait a considerable amount of time for the thirst to be quenched. It's worth the wait!

A display of wood carved items was also shown. None of these items were for sale unfortunately. Some of the seniors of the area have recently taken up the art of charcoal sketching. The results of their efforts were on display and were terrific. Many talented people reside in the beaches!

The good citizens who volunteer their services for many, many of the weekly activities at the Senior Scene are to be congratulated. There was much to be bought on Saturday.
