Tragic accident on the North Shore

RCMP press release
Powerview RCMP report that at approximately 9:30 AM, October 31, a van carrying six occupants lost control and rolled into a ditch on the North Shore Road at Fort Alexander Indian Reserve. A 26 year old female passenger, Kimberly Ann Bird was pronounced dead on arrival at Pine Falls Hospital. Injuries were received by other occupants who were treated at the Pine Falls Hospital. None of the injuries are considered life threatening. Alcohol, speed and driver inexperience are all factors. A young offender is being charged with impaired driving. None of the occupants of the van were wearing safety belts.

Another community newspaper bites the dust

Beausejour's community newspaper, the Brokenhead River Review, has been sold to Montreal based Quebecor. The sale was closed Tuesday, November 3. The paper will be renamed the Beausejour Review and will become a free, regional paper. The Review will bring to nine the number of community newspapers owned by Quebecor in Manitoba.

Don Norman, who founded the Voice five and a half years ago, moved to Beausejour to begin publishing the Brokenhead River Review four years ago this week. The paper was sold to Paul Zilman two and a half years ago.

Quoted in the Winnipeg Sun, Richard Boyer, Vice President, Quebecor Communications said, "In conformity with its strategic orientation, this acquisition will allow the company to expand its publishing activities in Manitoba."

Interviewed on Wednesday, Zilman said, "I'm going to miss being in the business. I had the best job in Beausejour until yesterday." The review was competing with the Clipper, based in Anola, which is delivered free in Beausejour, and faced with the strong possibility that the Leader, now owned by Quebecor, also competing in the same market. All the review's employees will be employed by Quebecor.

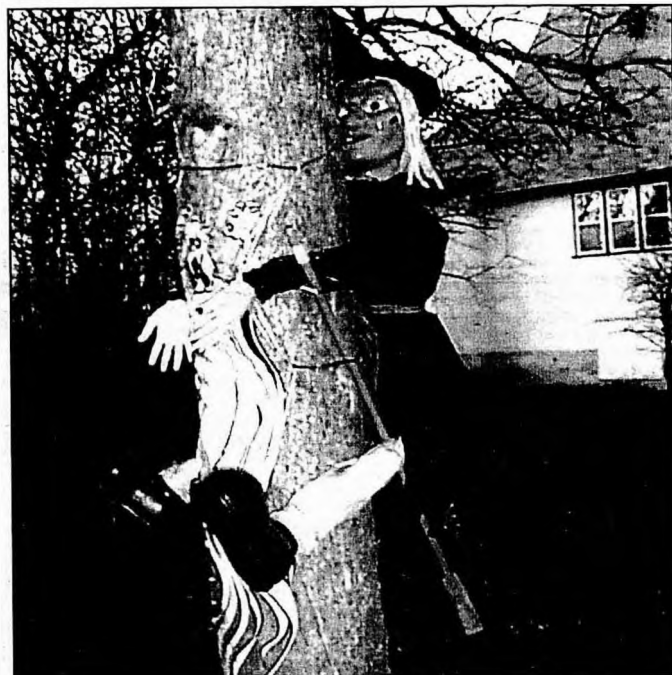

Sagkeeng approves Financial Management Plan

At a general assembly last Friday, Sagkeeng members accepted a "Financial Management Plan" proposed by Sagkeeng Auditor Bernie Shore.

five years. Sagkeeng has been operating at a deficit which swelled to 3.2 million dollars last year. Total debt is now 10.2 million dollars. There are more than 300 families on the housing waiting list.

The Assembly had three options, the Financial Management Plan, receivership, or a third, proposed by the Concerned Citizens Committee. The Financial Management Plan was chosen. It involves a ten percent wage cut for Sagkeeng staff, no new jobs, and no housing for

Under the Financial Management Plan Sagkeeng will be co-managed by the Chief and Council and an appointee of Indian and Northern Affairs Canada.

Watch out witches

This witch came to grief outside Kim and Laurie Wilson's haunted house on Halloween. The Wilson's were visited by more than 700 witches, ghosts, goblins and many other scary youngsters looking for treats. The 700 trick or treaters is down from 1000 last year. This was the last year the Wilson's will be using their home for the event. They will be moving next year and will be decorating the broadlands restaurant for Halloween '99.

Pine Falls on the Internet

Pinefalls.com has arrived in cyberspace! The Economic Development Authority of Whiteshell has contracted Granite Internet to produce a premier website showcasing the town of Pine Falls to the Internet community. The site will be part of a larger central tourism site for the Eastern Region of Manitoba.

The new Pine Falls site will include information about the recreation available in the area, history of Pine Falls, services and businesses available, town statistics such as population and exact location, an interactive events calendar for use by the general population of Pine Falls and general tourism information. Every business in the town of Pine Falls can receive a free listing in the service area of the new site complete with contact information.

Granite needs your help with this project. Granite is looking for information about all of the service and community groups active in the area, church services, businesses, interesting history, pictures or whatever else you think might be of interest. If you have information that you feel may warrant inclusion on the site, please contact Donna Warenko at (204) 753-2071, e-mail donna@granite.mb.ca or Fax (204) 753-8238. Information and pictures can be mailed to Box 672, Pinawa, MB R0E 1L0.

Remembrance day messages

The time has come once again to set aside a few minutes in our busy schedules to remember those who sacrificed their lives to protect and preserve the way of life we enjoy today. On this Remembrance Day, I would ask all Manitobans to join me and my family in paying our respects to the many Canadians who fought and died in two World Wars and the Korean Conflict. It is important that we never forget the great debt of gratitude we owe to these gallant men and women.

We must also remember the many Canadians, including Manitobans, who have served, and continue to serve, around the world in support of United Nations efforts to preserve world peace. We are so very fortunate to live in a nation which has never known the ravages of war. Let us, at this time, renew our resolve to work for peace, in our relations with one another and around the world.

W. Yvon Dumont

Once more with the dawn of November 11th, we gratefully honour the Canadians who gave up their lives in defence of freedom. This year's commemoration is especially meaningful because it coincides with the 50th Anniversary of the Universal Rights that was issued by the United Nations. Article One states that "All human beings are born free and equal, in dignity and rights." We, in Canada, and in many other nations, owe our freedom to the brave men and women who were willing to make the ultimate sacrifice to protect us and our families. I urge all Manitobans to join in a renewed pledge to remember and respect those who served throughout the many wars and battles fought to preserve the ideals of our great and beautiful nation. Let us always remember.

Bissett News

Before the witches and goblins came out last week, the San Antonio School held an Author's Day featuring author/illustrator Phoebe Gilman. Creator of such visually delightful books as "The Gypsy Princess," Mrs. Gilman recounted the 12-year long endeavour in the making of her first book "The Balloon Tree." She also gave a fascinating slide presentation, drew an illustration from her newest book "Pirate Pearl", and included a book signing / question time at the end. Born in the Bronx, New York, and becoming a Canadian citizen as an adult after studying art in New York and Israel, Phoebe Gilman's biographical narrative was a treat for the students and adults of Bissett.

School Committee Election were held on the 28th, with a meeting shortly thereafter for election of officers. Interest ran high and all the positions were filled. The committee consists of Area Advisory Representative/Chairperson Jackie Hallett, Vice-Chairperson Anna Wynne, Secretary Rita Newsham and Treasurer Norma Wood, along with Members Marlene Wynne and Leslie Tucker. Meetings will be held monthly and parents are welcome to attend. The sports/recreation survey results are in. All of those who responded are looking for further activities for people of all ages, with some great ideas for recreation and a commitment towards volunteering to that end. Thanks to all who took the time to complete the survey; we'll hopefully see some programs implemented soon. One program already well under way is the Ladies Fitness/Aerobics class that meets three times weekly. If interested, show up at the school at 8:00 on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays.

RM to get civic addresses

The RM of Alexander, and all rural municipalities are to get a civic address sometime next year. The civic address, a street name and number will replace rural route numbers, and lot and block numbers. Re-numbering for the entire province is scheduled to be complete by next summer. Civic addresses will make it easier for emergency vehicles, fire trucks, ambulance and police to locate the scene of an emergency more easily, and more quickly.

Wings of Power receive $96,000

The Children & Youth Secretariat has made a donation of over $96,000 to the Wings of Power Program. Darren Praznik, the Minister of Health, is the chairperson for the Committee of Ministers who focuses on the Health, Education, and Social Service Fields. The Children & Youth Secretariat is under the umbrella of this Committee of Ministers. The Children & Youth Secretariat works with provincial government departments and community organizations to facilitate change in the current service delivery system to improve life outcomes for children, youth, and families.

Praznik presented Wings of Power with their generous donation. The funding for Wings of Power is guaranteed for three years. The Children & Youth Secretariat is a department of non-elected officials who focus on a coordinated approach to youth issues. Two of the programs that the Children & Youth Secretariat is very interested in are Side by Side which is a school-based program in Winnipeg and the community model of Wings of Power. Wings of Power will be evaluated by the Children & Youth Secretariat in the hopes that it will become a template for other community-based programs in the province and something we can be proud of. Wings of Power is a community-based program focusing on empowering families from all walks of life. Our free services are available for everyone. Wings of Power is based on four pillars: Nutrition, Parenting, Literacy & Language, and Early Intervention. Wings of Power believes it is important to focus on the strengths of families and that families have a lot to offer to our community. Le Petit Soleil

Pre-School News

Another year at Le Petit Soleil Pre-School is in full swing. Throughout the year, we hope to accomplish the following:

1. To provide a varied and interesting program for your child.
2. To encourage a gradual independence of your child.
3. To help your child develop socially, that is to share, cooperate, be respectful and to be able to separate from mom and dad and still have fun.
4. To introduce the French language to your child.
5. To prepare your child to enter into kindergarten where they will learn in a structured environment.

September gave the children a variety of new experiences. For our 3 year old class of 16, it was the first time a lot of the children were away from home. Adjusting came fast for some and slower for others but all are well adjusted, comfortable and look forward to coming to school. We have 2 four year old classes of 16 and 10 children. All but one of our last year's 3 year returned (he moved) and we acquired an additional 11 students. Everyone is well on their way to becoming prepared for kindergarten next year.

The September theme of "All about me" gave the children a chance to learn about themselves while they were adjusting to a classroom setting.

October brought themes of fall, Thanksgiving and Halloween. Our Halloween parties are always a great hit. The children sing songs, play games and trick or treat in the classroom with the buckets that they decorated themselves.

November is Health and Safety month. We plan on having special visitors to the classroom. A police visit is already planned as well as a crossing guard will come and talk to the children in the 4 year old class. We would also like to get a fireman to visit. During November, good eating habits, the importance of exercise and getting enough rest will be emphasized.

We still have a few openings in our 4 year old PM class. If you are interested, please call us at 367-8082.

Thank you...

The board and staff of Library Allard wish to thank everyone who assisted in making Library Allard's annual Fall Supper a success.

Special thanks to all the cooks and bakers (too numerous to name), to the servers, Jacqueline Awanthay, Daniel Dupont, Nicole Dubois, Katherine Xcauli, Tyrol Thurston and Annick Vincent, to Midway Foods, and to Bernice Phillips, who kept everything under control.

The community's generous donations and support were much appreciated.

Exposure: Environmental Links to Breast Cancer

submitted by
Kimlee Morrisseau

Did you know:

- Canadians have a one in three lifetime risk of contracting some form of cancer, odds rise to one in two if non-melanoma skin cancers are counted.
- One in every four Canadians will die from cancer.
- At the beginning of the 20th century, cancer was a relatively rare disease, striking fewer than one in 25 Canadians.
- Statistics Canada estimates, "about 129 900 people in Canada will be diagnosed with cancer this year, and 62 700 will die of it."

In the 1950's, a woman had a one in twenty risk of developing breast cancer in her lifetime. Today this risk is one in eight.

-Twenty-two per cent of breast cancer cases occurs in women under age 50 (and fully 66% are under 70).

-According to an epidemiologist and chair of the 1995 Ontario Task Force on the Primary Prevention of Cancer, "fifty per cent of cancer could be prevented on the knowledge we now have."

While we have seen amazing advancements in almost every aspect of our lives this century there is increasing evidence that we are poisoning our ourselves in the process.

Three decades ago the World Health Organization (WHO) stated that 80 per cent of cancers were caused by toxic chemicals found in our air, water and food. In her book, Silent Spring (1962), biologist Rachel Carson warned of a coming cancer epidemic if we did not abandon or drastically reduce our use of toxic, long-lasting pesticides and other synthetic chemicals that were foreign to nature.

These warnings went unheeded. In Canada alone from 1994-1996, 1.45 billion pounds of toxic chemicals were released into the environment; 280 million pounds of these chemicals were carcinogenic (cancer-causing).

In 1995, the Ontario provincial government released a task force report called Recommendations for the Primary Prevention of Cancer. The report urged for a reduction or elimination of many cancer-causing agents in communities, including polyvinyl chlorides (PVCs), motor vehicle emissions, pesticides and nuclear fission products. Task force members noted that there are safe alternatives to most toxic practices and products.

In recent years, many health care practitioners, scientists, and breast cancer survivors believe that some of the toxins polluting our environment (and therefore our bodies) are linked to the rise in breast cancer rates. On Tuesday, 18 November at 8PM at the Pine Falls United Church, I will be showing the film, Exposure: Environmental Links to Breast Cancer which looks at several of these, including radiation, pesticides, some plastics and certain chemicals. The film also looks at mammography and the drug tamoxifen as possible initiators of cancer.

The idea behind hosting this information workshop is simply to share information and promote some local dialogue on a health issue which we may be able to help prevent - as individuals and as a community. If you find this of interest, please feel welcome to come join us.

Correction

Last week, in our story on a breast feeding Peer Counselling Program in Sagkeeng, we incorrectly stated that Chief Fontaine approved the program. The program was, in fact, approved by the Fort Alexander Health Centre.

'Round and About the Beaches

By Monika I. Evans

The Senior Scene

The best thing that my husband and I have done since retiring to the Beaches is joining the Senior Scene. We have made more friends and acquaintances there in one year than I did living for 10 years in Winnipeg. Just walking into the building, you are met by smiling, welcoming faces.

Last year I joined the Craft Group. We made beautiful bag ladies that could be hung up and used to store plastic bags. We also made items out of wood, such as reindeer which were Christmas decorations. There are also ceramic classes and the wood carvers also do a lovely job. All these items are made for the Club to be sold twice yearly. These sales are very well attended and make a lovely profit for the club.

When I read that there was a Writers' Group in the Club, my heart skipped a beat. I had had a secret yearning for years to try my hand at writing, other than dull office letters and reports. We meet once a month and it is always such a delight to hear what others write and to offer our critiques. Everyone has a different style of writing and the subject matters that we cover are very diverse. The members of the group are from all different types of careers or jobs, but when we are there, we are all writers.

This year a new group formed. We are the Songsters Group. We started up in early September and have twice sung for the Dinner Dance with great success. We are well received by the Senior Scene members and I know that we all enjoyed singing for them. It is really great that so many men come out and lend their voices to our group.

Once a month there is a Dinner Dance with a different theme. Since becoming members, I think we have only missed two of the Dinners to date. Bob and I were to have spearheaded the planning of the October Dinner, but unfortunately had to bow out. The group that were to help us took over and served a marvellous meal. We have had Dinners with roast beef, stews, the last summer picnic— never the same, but always a great meal. The decorations are seasonal and always beautiful.

If you are a Beaches resident and haven't joined the Senior Scene, come over and see what they have to offer, you won't be disappointed, and maybe make some new friends.

Recognize this?

Another landmark from Marcel Pitre's photo library. If you know where this landmark is located, call us at the voice at 367-4466. Sorry, no prizes, however the first person with the correct answer will have their name published in the following issue. Good Luck!

LAST WEEK'S QUICK CALLER WAS: Larry Fontaine identifying the World's Largest Tomahawk in Cutknife, Saskatchewan.

The tomahawk in Cut Knife is billed as the world's largest - a 16 metre fibreglass structure posed in mid-swing through a massive concreted teepee.

"These are one of a kind things you won't find anywhere else," said retired teacher Walter Pooler, keeper of the tomahawk site in Cut Knife, a wee town about 175 kilometres north-west of Saskatoon.

Tourists from as far away as New Zealand and Denmark have seen the monument, erected in 1971 to honor treaties signed with local Indian bands in 1871. Government money helped cover the $12,000 cost.

Pooler said despite the publicity overseas, Cut Knife hasn't reaped great economic benefit. Only the nearby campground has profited.

"We probably only bring in about $500-$600 a year, but it's extremely well known. People from other provinces have heard of it and camp here just to see it."

Mice and Elephants

can share the road

Mice just need to be more careful!

Trucks are getting longer, taller and wider. Cars are getting smaller. Big trucks have big blind spots called NO-ZONES - areas behind, beside and in front of them where they can't see your car. A car can safely share the road with a truck. Don't get trapped in a NO-ZONE!

If you're following a truck and you can't see either of its side view mirrors, the truck driver can't see you.

The NO-ZONE program is a Manitoba RoadWise Initiative sponsored by Manitoba Public Insurance, the Manitoba Trucking Association and the Transportation Safety and Regulatory Services Division of Manitoba Highways and Transportation. For information on the NO-ZONE call 1-800-261-9928.

Truck drivers sometimes need to swing wide to the left to safely make a right hand turn. Give trucks plenty of room, never cut between them and the curb when they're turning right.

When passing, look for the whole front of the truck in your rear-view mirror before pulling into the lane in front of it. Maintain a consistent speed and don't slow down or stop directly in front of a large truck. At 100 km per hour, a large truck requires more than the length of a football field to stop.

"Watch out for the NO-ZONES!"

THE FASTEST IN THE WORLD

What is the fastest land mammal? It's the cheetah, which can run more than 60 miles per hour.

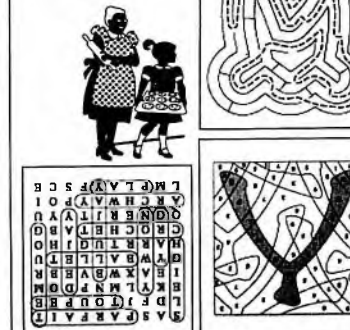

The cheetah's long legs, small head and big lungs are all part of what makes this animal so fast. From standing still, it only takes about three seconds for a cheetah to reach its highest speed.

Mostly found in Africa, the cheetah is a member of the cat family. It weighs from 100 to 130 pounds. While the head and body of a cheetah can be up to 5 feet long. Its tail can be up to 2 feet long.

While other large cats hide and wait to pounce on prey, the cheetah uses speed to catch food. If it does not catch its prey within a minute, the cheetah will give up. Once the cheetah catches its food, it will drag the catch to a safe place and eat what it wants, then leave the remains for other animals.

The female cheetah spends most of her life taking care of cheetah cubs. The male usually hunts with other males. The male is very protective of his group's area or territory. If a male who is not part of the group tries to get into the territory, they start fighting, and sometimes the intruder is even killed.

They Fought for Freedom

By George D. Bayly

Just after we had begun our descent into Gatwick Airport on the flight from Malaga, this past summer, I peered out the window and noticed that we were passing over the coast of Normandy. It was one of those clear, cloudless days of midsummer over the English Channel. Stretching below me, just as though I were looking at a map in an atlas, I could see the eastern extremity of the Cotentin coast, Utah, Omaha, Gold, Juno, and Sword beaches, as they were codenamed for the invasion. I tried to imagine what the scene must have looked like 54 years ago on June 6, 1944, when Operation Overlord, the Allied invasion of France commenced.

The Canadian 3rd Division landed at "Juno" beach after the 2nd Canadian Armoured Division cleared 12 lanes through the mine fields and obstacles in the area between St. Aubin-sur-Mer and Courseulles, both seaside resorts. The tanks of the Fort Garry House of Winnipeg were part of this Armoured Division.

After the outbreak of war in 1939, thousands of young Canadians in every community across the nation joined the branches of the Armed Forces. At training camps established throughout the country young men and women from the Pine Falls district began to prepare for the challenge that lay ahead of them. For many, it began as a great adventure but turned into a deadly conflict with the Axis powers led by Nazi Germany. By May of 1940, the German Panzer Divisions had over run the Low Countries, Belgium, and France and stood looking across the Channel at the distant shores of England, 18 miles away. At this point in the war, Hitler launched his air "blitz" against England, but the smaller Royal Air Force with its faster Spitfires and Hurricanes, aided with the invention of radar, gained mastery of the air and defeated the German Luftwaffe. Some Canadians flew Spitfires in this aerial conflict which became known as "The Battle of Britain."

The German Army heavily fortified the coast of France to defend against any future invasion. After the defeat of Rommel's Afrika Corps by the British Eighth Army in the North African desert, in 1942, and the Anglo-American landings in Morocco the same year, the Allies invaded Sicily and then mainland Italy to create a second front in preparation for the invasion of Normandy in June of 1944. The greatest amphibious operation in history, the D-Day Invasion of Normandy, began at dawn, preceded by paratroopers successfully carried out their mission which was to destroy bridges to prevent German counter attacks. On June 6, Canadian forces had penetrated further inland than any other unit. The 7th Brigade of the Canadian 3rd Division comprised of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles, the Regina Rifles, and the Canadian Scottish Regiment went ashore at Bernieres-Sur-Mer and Courseulles where they engaged in hard bitter fighting. On the beach, Gil Beaulieu of Pine Falls was wounded by a German "88"! As the 7th Brigade advanced on Caen, they encountered fierce opposition from the 12th S.S. Hitler Jugend Division commanded by Col. Kurt Meyer. On June 7th, this fanatical Hitler Youth Division overran the Winnipeg and Regina Rifles and captured 34 Canadians, including David Gold of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles. They were all shot on the orders of Panzer Commander Meyer.

Ray Dean of Pine Falls, RCME Corps, was attached to the 2nd Armoured Division. A few days after the D-Day landings, he suddenly found himself in command of his unit when his commanding officer was killed. He subsequently led the men in an attack on a village which they liberated from the Germans. Ray Dean is honoured every June by the people of that Village.

Some other Pine Falls and District residents who served their country were: the Hutchisons-Dave, Mosquito pilot, Pathfinder Sqdm., Clarence and John-RCN Convoy duty; the Sharpes- Bill and George in the RCAF, Gerry in the RCN; George Lalor, RCAF attached to RAF (Australian Unit), wounded in North Africa; Fintan Lalor- RCAF, killed in action 1943; Art Veilleux- PPCLI, Served in Italy and Holland; Clayton Farmer- RCAF (awarded DFC), Dr. L.P. Lansdown-CAMC; North Africa, Italy, England; Jack Dean- RCN, Corvette Convoy duty, George Dean- RAF Bomber Pilot, killed in action; Don Bosma- RCN, Martin Bosma- Can. Infantry; Ken Walton- Infantry in North America and the Continent; CECE Cook- RC Engineers in Britain and Continent; Mel Tollifson- RCAF on the Continent, from Sagkeeng (Fort Alexander); Anita Kolesnik, Vicky Sokoloski, and Germaine Lacharity in the WAC; Red Halpin- Signal Corps, the Continent.

Others who served in the various branches were the Kemballs; Eddie, Art, and Alfred; Laurence Frayne, RCN; Pete and Alain Pexoux, and Emmanuel Bouvier; Bill and Ken McDonald; Laveme and Lawrence Taylor; Homer Thomson; Harold Anderson, Dave Crawford, Keith Bown, Charlie Frederick, Helen Hutchison, E. Gaffray, John, Mary and Bill Irvine, Stewart Kahle, Frances Walton, Pat O'Connor, Os Jacob, Stan and George Gold, Arnold Anderson, Balfour Dahl, and Stan Powell. The following men were killed in action: Ernest Gold, Roy Thibideau, Tommy Robinson, and Roy Betts. (There are probably many names that I

REMEMBRANCE DAY - Bryan Adams (from "Into the Fire" A&M 1987)

For our king and our country, and the promise of glory
We came from Kingston and Brighton to fight on the front lines
Just lads from the farms and boys from the cities
Not meant to be soldiers, we lay in the trenches
We'd face the fighting with a smile ... or so we said

If only we had known what danger lay ahead

The sky turned to grey as we went into battle
On the fields of Europe young men were fallin'
I'll be back for you someday - it won't be long
If I can just hold on 'til the bloody war is over

The guns will be silent - on Remembrance Day
There'll be no more fighting - on Remembrance Day

By October of '18 Cambrai had fallen
Soon the war would be over and we'd be returning
Don't forget me while I'm gone far away
Well, it won't be long 'til I'm back there in your arms again

The guns will be silent - on Remembrance Day
There'll be no more fighting - on Remembrance Day

One day soon I don't know when
You know we'll all be free and the bells of peace will ring again
The time will come for you and me
We'll be going home when this bloody war has ended

The guns will be silent - on Remembrance Day
We'll all say a prayer - on Remembrance Day

... on Remembrance Day ...
... say a little prayer ...
... on Remembrance Day ...

Well, the guns will be silent
There'll be no more fighting
We'll lay down our weapons
On Remembrance Day

have not mentioned here. For omissions, I apologize) During the Korean War (1950-53), Frank Thibideau served in the RCN and Sid Brewster in the PPCLI, Paratrooper. In 1956, during the Suez Canal crisis, Donat Chevrefils volunteered to serve in the Canadian UN Peacekeeping Force in Egypt. He was wounded when his jeep struck a landmine in November of 1957, and lived the rest of his life as a paraplegic.

After World War II, General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces, wrote: "Without the great sacrifices made by the Anglo-Canadian armies in the brutal, slugging battles for Caen and Falaise, the spectacular advances made elsewhere by the Allied forces could have never come about."

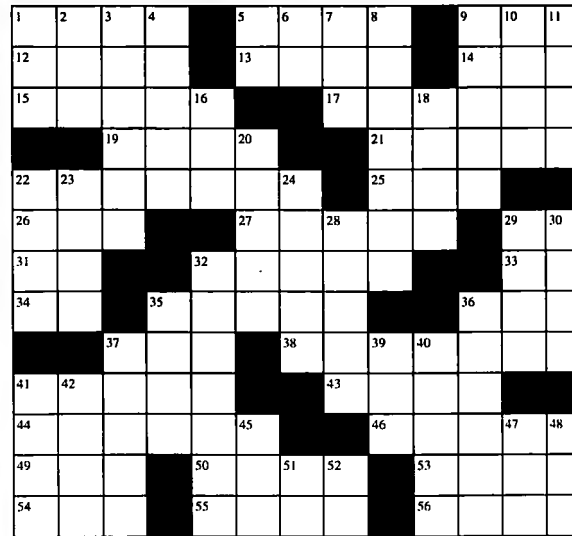

All those who fought and those who died, in their individual way, played an important role in the continuing struggle to maintain peace and preserve freedom on our fragile planet. Let's think of them on November 11.

TAURUS April 20 - May 20
Does a close friend have you up against a brick wall? This may be a good time to analyze your attitude and personality when you're dealing with others. Learn from this situation and start working on becoming more assertive rather than aggressive.

GEMINI May 21 - June 20
Some tough money decisions are on the horizon for you. Be careful whose advice you take concerning them. Some people can make more trouble than what they're worth. Don't get stuck in a long conversation with a coworker. It could reflect poorly on you.

CANCER June 21 - July 22
Plan a big, old fashioned dinner for your family. Look to an elderly relative for recipes and pointers on preparing the spread. Make sure you plan ahead for this. This is a perfect way to bring everyone together.

LEO July 23 - Aug. 22
This should turn out to be a good week at work. You'll finally get some of the recognition you deserve. Enjoy it and carry that good feeling home with you. Someone in your family will need some cheering up this week, and you can be there.

VIRGO August 23 - September 22

LIBRA Sept. 23 - Oct. 22
It's time for you to get out of the house and have some fun. You're starting to get in a rut. A close friend should give you the answer to a problem you've been dealing with for some time. Share that new idea at work. It could bring a great reward to you.

SCORPIO Oct. 23 - Nov. 21
Travel plans? Make sure they include servicing your car. Have your tires, brakes and fluids checked. Also be sure to make reservations in advance. Then all your worries will be behind you, and you'll be able to enjoy the weekend.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22 - Dec. 21
You may encounter some problems with coworkers or employees this week at work. Just remember, you can't please everybody all the time. Look for some friends to drop in this week. Put the work problems behind you and enjoy the time with them.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22 - Jan. 19
It's time to start watching your spending habits... before you let your holiday spending get out of control. On top of that, don't plan to make any major purchase this week. Go along with your partner's plans, even though they are not your idea of "fun."

AQUARIUS Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
Stop and take time to think about all the things you have to be thankful for... Even though it may not seem to be a great time for you, think about what has gone your way this year. While you're at it, be sure to let someone close to you know how much you appreciate him/her.

PISCES Feb. 19 - March 20
Don't give up on your romance just yet, Maybe if you make a few adjustments, you'll find that you and your partner can work things out. Start by putting work on the back burner for a few days or the weekend and giving extra time to your loved one.

To Uncle Marcel's family:

How easy it will be to see his smile, hear his voice, Simple to wait for him to walk through the door, or around the corner.

How difficult it will be to live with this effortless voice, never to be filled, except with the one unspoken question but more still with you unending, enduring love.

How easy it will be to remember all that he has taught us about begin a brother, a son, a husband, a father and grandfather, an uncle, a friend.

And yet so simple to buckle under when the heartache of missing him is too much to bear.

How easy, then, will it be to remember and celebrate the life of the precious person who's humour and faith and kindness will continue to thrive in the way you live and love others, knowing a piece of him is passed on to everyone whose lives were touched by him and whose life you will touch. He will live on in that way and how easy it will be.

Love Chantal

To Uncle Marcel's children, family & those who loved him:

I prefer to remember my uncle when I was young and frequently visiting Peper's farm. I vividly recall tagging along behind uncle Marcel as he would be combing his long strawberry blonde hair, splashing on cologne, getting ready to go out. "Where ya goin', what'cha doin'?" I would always ask him. And his answer was always the same. "I'm goin' girling." "Can I come?" I always asked. "Maybe next time" he'd reply with his bright smile and giggle he had.

At the age of 5 or 6 I always resented that answer as I watched him drive off in his red convertible, hair blowing in the wind. It wasn't until later in life when I was 'girling' that I realized I was envious and admired him for living his life as he chose, which at the time was against others better judgement and against the family grain.

I wish it hadn't been 14 years since I saw you last. And until I see you again, may you cruise the clouds in your red convertible and hair blow in the wind forever.

Love your nephew, Ken

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone who offered kind words and everyone who sent flowers, food and cards upon hearing of our recent loss. We've found comfort and strength in knowing you care and that you share the burden of our grief. A special mention to everyone who put on the delicious supper. Words cannot express our sadness or the void that Marcel's passing has left us with.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you and may God bless each of you.

In the Market For a New Car?

 Make sure the seat will move back far enough to let you have your legs and arms in a comfortable, slightly bent position.
 In some cars, you can adjust the angle of the steering wheel, making driving more comfortable for your arms.
