Community 2000: What direction will Pine Falls take in the new Millennium?

On Tuesday, April 6, 1999 an Open House will be held at the Pine Falls School Gym from 3:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. for the public to make inquiries about the two options available to the community of Pine Falls in terms of municipal organization. The two options are:

- merge with the Village of Powerview
 - join the Rural Municipality of Alexander as a Local Urban District (LUD)
- Visitors to the Open House can expect to speak directly with the following groups:
- Community 2000 Steering Committee
 - Pine Falls Paper Company
 - Village of Powerview
 - Rural Municipality of Alexander
 - Pine Falls School Board
 - Municipal Assessment Branch
 - Rural Development

The following points about the options have been considered relevant and important to communicate with the public prior to the Opinion Poll to be conducted on Thursday, April 8.

The Vision:

Last year community members came together and agreed on a vision for the future of Pine Falls.

Pine Falls — a proud and vibrant community that offers an attractive quality of life; a clean, safe and caring environment; strong economic growth; and opportunities for all segments of our society while respecting values and traditions.

Point to Consider about the Options:

Joining the R.M. of Alexander

- Pine Falls would become a Local Urban District. This involves the election of an Advisory Committee (2-3 people from Pine Falls) who have the authority to prepare an operating budget for Pine Falls. This would set out the work, services and related expenditures for the year. The work and services would be administered by the R.M. staff and/or contractors. The operating budget, which establishes the mill rate for the LUD, must be adopted by the R.M. With the exception of administration fees to the R.M., all funds raised in the LUD stay within the LUD.

- Only the councillor-at-large for the ward which Pine Falls would belong to would represent Pine Falls rate payers. This councillor would also sit on the Advisory Committee.

- Pine Falls would retain its name as a Local Urban District (LUD).

- The R.M. has a good infrastructure and administrative services to draw from.

- The R.M. has a large geographic area with diverse needs, and a majority of rate payers are non-resident. Pine Falls would be a small player in the scheme of things.

- The geographic boundaries limited by the LUD could prohibit opportunities for community growth and development.

Merge with the Village of Powerview

- Amalgamation to one community, however both villages will retain their names. A new name may be chosen for the new municipality.

- Similar needs of communities (and larger assessment base) result in better focus and stronger voice when lobbying provincial government. Better planning decisions, likely less conflicts.

- Increased community population results in: increased funding available from VLT and Provincial Municipal Tax Sharing
- Opportunities to plan for and improve community and business development, planning and community relations.
- All taxation dollars remain in the

- Elected representation on council (Village proposes 2 councillors from Powerview, 2 councillors from Pine Falls, Mayor to be elected-at-large).

- Recreational facilities would come under ownership of one municipal government.

- Expansion of community's geographic boundaries provides opportunity for growth.

- Local Improvement District (LID) is a method of funding capital projects/improvements specific to an area, so only rate payers who are in the area of the improvement pay for it.

School Division

The Pine Falls School Board is reviewing several options regarding the future of the school. Following municipal organization, funding for the school will come through the normal municipal taxation process. Rate payers will only pay tax to one school — so if the Pine Falls School remains under the Pine Falls School Division only the rate payers of Pine Falls will be responsible for those funding requirements. A more detailed report regarding the cost of operating the school and the possible options will be available at the Open House.

PINE FALLS OPINION POLL

On Thursday, April 8th

community residents and business owners of Pine Falls will vote on the direction as to where the community should proceed regarding municipal organization. The Opinion Poll will provide two options: amalgamate with the Village of Powerview or amalgamate with the R.M. of Alexander. Voters will also be asked to endorse no more than 3 members of the Community 2000 Steering Committee to further represent community residents on the company's "negotiating committee".

This committee will follow through on the arrangement of municipal organization with the community of choice.

Personal Opinion and Concerns Re: Pine Falls Amalgamation Issue

As a long time resident of Pine Falls, I support amalgamation with the neighbouring community of Powerview for a number of reasons:

- 1) We have already amalgamated a number of the key services that traditionally unite communities:
 - our schools
 - our churches
 - our community/recreation centres
- 2) It only makes sense to go one step further and officially bring together these two communities for the betterment of its citizens. This would enable us to focus our resources and tax dollars to:
 - i. Improve our schools and offer the best education for our children including English and French immersion, stronger curriculums that offer more choices and the most up-to-date educational tools.
 - ii. Churches that benefit from the united resources of the entire population.
 - iii. United community centres that can offer more services to its citizens young and old by combining financial, volunteer and administrative resources.

iv. Equal and fair representation from both communities, representation that is in touch with and knowledgeable of the community and its concerns; representation that understands issues of importance to the community, fairer taxation with emphasis on improvement to the community from which it is collected.

3) A lot of Pine Falls people do business in Powerview and vice-versa. Combining our communities would strengthen the entrepreneurial opportunities within the two communities contributing to new business and growth.

4) Geographically, there is great opportunity for the two communities to grow into each other, resulting in one larger, more efficient and growing economy through residential and commercial development.

5) As a former department manager with the Pine Falls Paper Company, I worked with and supervised employees from both Pine Falls and Powerview. This has given me a first-hand look at the spirit of community that exists between our towns.

6) While we know each other well and share concerns and values in Pine Falls and Powerview, we know little of the RM of Alexander. The RM of Alexander in turn knows little of us or our concerns.

7) Finally, over the years, the citizens of Pine Falls and Powerview have formed strong ties and a strong sense of community. You see this most strongly in our younger generation because they have learned together in our combined schools, worked together in our business and played together through the Pineview Saints, Pineview Recreation Assoc., etc. Our economic growth and future depends on them. We know that they will be stronger working together.

Comments, Questions and Queries

My fears of fading interest have been alleviated by the submission of four new questions this week. The first comment/question was submitted in person at the Department and the last three came together via regular mail. They presents some interesting situations and hopefully both the questions and answers promote some thought and discussions out there.

Q- A person attended the Detachment upset about an incident that had occurred at the crosswalk in Pine Falls in front of the Bay. As the person drove towards the crosswalk a toddler was at the crosswalk and pressed the crossing button, causing the lights to be activated. The person stopped but the toddler did not move, just kept pressing the button. The person slowly crept past the crosswalk and stopped to talk to the parent of the toddler who was at the corner of the Bay. The driver pointed out to the parent what their child was doing and was told, in an ugly two word explanative, to mind their business. At this point the driver departed.

The driver wondered if something about safety at crosswalks and the responsibility of people using the crosswalk could be addressed.

This person was frustrated because it was felt that if the child had dashed out when they crawled through the crosswalk it would have been seen as far as their fault but on the other hand if they did not proceed and had waited for the parent, it could have been an unnecessary long wait.

A- First of all the crossing corridor is in place for the safety of pedestrians.

in the business core which generally has a higher traffic volume than the rest of the residential area of Pine Falls. The misuse of this corridor on a regular basis would lead to the eventual habit of drivers to take the crossing lights less seriously which in turn could result in a vehicle/pedestrian collision. In most cases the pedestrian loses this contest. If someone is found to be intentionally misusing the crossing lights, a fine for impeding traffic or similar related offence could be issued. Being realistic, this would not apply to a toddler, however that brings me to this specific incident. I am personally shocked to hear that a parent would let their young child wander unattended near a busy road, maybe it's just me but that seems very irresponsible. It was under the impression that a child took a bit more care than a dog and even then I would have a dog leashed. Secondly, I'm appalled at the apparent lack of civility in the parent's response to the driver. I would think as a parent one would be appreciative of the fact that someone would take the time to point out their child might be in.

Bear in mind I've only heard one side of this incident and am responding to what information was given to me. In the same situation, on duty or not, I would stop and notify the parent of their child's actions. If they responded to me the same way they responded to this driver, I would also be explaining the finer points of the Cause Disturbance by Swearing charge I wrote about a couple of weeks ago.

The bottom line is use the crosswalk lights only when intending to cross in the corridor and parents, please be aware of where your children are, especially in the busier downtown area. There are not many situations worse than attending an accident scene involving children that was preventable.

Q- Does the RCMP have the right to enter a house when under age teens are drinking and the parents are at the Legion?

A- In the specific situation your question refers to, I would go get the parents at the Legion and we would enter the house together. Every situation is different and therefore there are various legal authorities to enter private premises. Once the proper authority to enter a house has been obtained, yes we do have the right to enter a house.

Q- What if the parents are home while the wild party is on?

A- This would be an interesting situation as I do not believe we see it too often. Under the Liquor Control Act, a parent can legally allow their child to consume alcohol in their presence. However, they can not provide liquor to minors who are not their children or legal wards, and doing so leaves them subject to the charge indicated in the next question. Also, depending on the age of the teen and the level of intoxication or liquor consumption at this "wild party", Child and Family Services may be advised to look into the situation in the home in question.

Q- What's the charge and cost for an 18 year old buying weekend booze for kids underage?

A- An adult (18 years old) who buys liquor for underage kids will be charged under Section 121(1) of the Liquor Control Act for "supplying liquor to a person under age" and will be fined $735.00. If the adult is selling the liquor to the kids, that is bootlegging or "resale of liquor" which is also subject to a $735.00 fine. Finally for the kids on the receiving end of this liquor, they will be charged under Section 121(5) of the Liquor Control Act for "possession/consumption of liquor under 18 years" and will have to appear in Court as it has no set fine.

There you have it, what people wanted to know this week. Keep your questions and comments coming and enjoy your spring break.

Holy Comment
 Batman!
 In lieu of a safety tip this week I am going to use this space to print a 2 page letter I received from an obviously frustrated member of our community.

C- It really gets under my skin to know that you guys go out of your way to catch our little thieves and violators out here on the reserve, then you sit and do 6-10 hours of paperwork while most likely the accused is on the street before you are done the paperwork. May as well go for coffee and donuts because the little thieves will only go home, take a shower, brush his/her teeth and go before a judge who'll see a stiffed up accused who's cleaner than his record and says he truly is sorry for the offence and the inconvenience of your family not having a TV to watch or the comfort of a good night's sleep, all said with an innocent face. Then the Judge proceeds to give the criminal a slap on the wrist and a lollipop (meaning community work).

A Visit to the Fire Hall

Submitted by Rachel Rusk "Les P'tits Loups Inc."

On March 11th, 1999, the three and four year old students of Les P'tits Loups Inc., a mini-school located in St. Georges, along with their teacher, Mrs. Gisèle Avanthay, went for a visit to the fire hall.

They were greeted at the door by volunteer firefighter,

Denis Boulet. They first had a discussion about fire safety: what to do if they found lighters or matches; to stop, drop and roll if they ever caught on fire; etc. Then, they were shown how the fire gear is ready for the firefighters to jump into. The children then counted while Denis ran to change into full fire gear. His time was a quick 36 seconds!

Denis also donned a Scott Air Pack and Mask to show the children what a firefighter would wear when going into a burning building. But the best part was checking out the fire trucks! They got to sit in "Yellow Bird" and in the back of the extraction unit.

After snapping a few pictures of the children dressed in fire gear, it was already time to go back to school. The kids had a great time while learning about fire safety and the job of a firefighter. We would like to thank Denis for all of the time and effort that went into this presentation for the kids. We would also like to thank the Fire Dept. for lending us the fire safety kit which helped prepare the kids for this visit.

Jeudi, le 11 mars, 1999, les élèves (3-4ans) des "P'tits Loups Inc.", prématernelle située à St. Georges, se rendaient à Pine-Falls, avec leur professeur Mme. Gisèle Avanthay, pour une visite à la caserne de pompiers. Un pompier, M. Denis Boulet accueillit les enfants à la porte; au début, Denis et ils ont appris... 1) que tu dois remettre à un adulte les allumettes et les briquets que tu trouves 2) que tu dois arrêter, tomber et rouler par terre si jamais tes vêtements prennent en feu etc. Les enfants ont aussi vu comment un pompier garde son attirail tout prêt à enfiler lors d'un appel au feu. Alors que les élèves comptaient, Denis réussit à s'habiller en 36 sec. seulement! Denis a aussi mis son réservoir d'oxygène et son masque pour montrer aux élèves l'habillement complet d'un pompier prêt à combattre un incendie. Mais l'apogée de la visite, c'était sûrement de pouvoir monter dans le gros camion des pompiers et d'explorer le "Yellow Bird". Les enfants se sont bien amusés à s'habiller comme un pompier et après avoir pris quelques photos, c'était déjà le temps de retourner à l'école.

Les enfants ont eu beaucoup de plaisir à apprendre au sujet de la sécurité-incendie et du métier de pompier. Nous voulons remercier Denis pour avoir accepté d'offrir si généreusement son temps pour organiser une belle présentation pour les élèves de la pré-maternelle de St. Georges. Nous aimerions aussi remercier notre "Services de Pompiers" pour nous avoir prêté la trousse de sécurité-incendie pour notre classe, en guise de mieux préparer les enfants pour cette belle visite.

Employees Wrote History

by George Bayly

While going archival research, I discovered that publication of the original Abitibi magazine ceased in 1931 during the depression, and even when the mills began to start up again in 1935, the voices of the divisional editors remained silent. Employees from each division contributed articles to the editor-in-chief in Toronto, the first editor began an employee named Alex Dewar.

In summer of 1935, the Free Press reported that the Manitoba Paper Company had made arrangements with the Great Falls Generating Station to supply hydroelectric power for the resumption of operations. During the shutdown, workers at relief camps had been cutting pulp, and when one paper machine roared into life on July 8, 77,000 cords of wood were ready. On July 12, 1935, residents of Pine Falls turned out en masse to welcome the Honourable W. J. Tupper, Lt. Governor, E.H. Macklin, the Publisher of the Free Press, and 150 other visitors who came to help them celebrate the re-opening of the paper mill and the re-employment of 200 men. They were accompanied by the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Band which played several times during the day. After a tour of the mill, the dignitaries were served dinner at one o'clock in the brightly decorated community hall, followed by the usual speeches. The Hon. J.S. McDiarmid, Minister of Trade was loud in his praise of General Manager C.C. Irvine, describing him as the "model employer and good citizen, loved and respected by the entire community."

Tribute was paid to the late J.D. McArthur by his friend and associate Bruce Thompson, who said, "Money as money meant nothing to him, but money as a means to carry out his ideas, was everything to him." Mr. Thompson recalled a time when J.D. McArthur had lost a great deal of money in Northern Alberta, and said, "The money is not lost. I have not got it, but the country has." The celebration continued into mid-autumn when the mill went into full production with the start-up of the second paper machine.

On October 3, 1935, Italian troops invaded Ethiopia, the inaugural step in Mussolini's dream of building a great new Roman Empire, and the rapid rearmament of Nazi Germany would mean dark days ahead. Winston Churchill called it "The Gathering Storm". From the outbreak of World War II in 1939, to its conclusion in 1945, no Abitibi magazine was published. In 1946, one year after the war, D. Ambridge, the new President of Abitibi, began reorganization of the company, and in September of that year, the Abitibi Magazine resumed publication. By the beginning of 1955, the tenth year of publication, total yearly production had increased by 300,000 tons, wage rates had doubled, there were 644 persons in the retirement plan, and a Quarter Club membership of 1243 active and associate members. In the September 1955 issue of

History

Abitibi, the Toronto editor, Dorothy Hatton, noted, "how the magazine is a contributing factor to better understanding the Company." Employees and their families from every division of Abitibi could get a good view of daily life on the job and at home, and Company customers such as newspapers in Winnipeg, Minneapolis, Omaha, and Kansas City, could peek into the life of families who produced the paper that they used.

Through these magazines, I can allow readers to relive their history and reacquaint them with people, especially old timers, most of whom are now gone. I, and my contemporaries, were fortunate to have spent our early lives in a town, a magnificent outdoor setting, which was free from crime such as thefts and home invasions. (On one occasion when our family was preparing to leave on a holiday, we could not locate the old skeleton key, so we left without locking the doors.) But I have digressed, so let's continue with more history.

On Saturday, December 9, 1950, the basketball court upstairs in the Arena Recreation Centre was officially opened with the Pine Falls Basketball Club playing West Kildonan Collegiate. Before the games began, Mr. Ralph Hayes, Mill Manager, paid tribute to Club President Frank Sellars and coach Miss E. Allison, for promoting the game of basketball in the town. The Pine Falls Club defeated the West Kildonan team 39 to 32 with top scorers Alphonse Hebert Jr. (14pts.) and Donnie McDonald, (10pts.) leading the way. Members of the Pine Falls boys' team were A. Hebert, Doug Legall, John Bayly, Don Hills, Don McDonald, Jimmy Dawson, Ray Hutchison, Bruce Halpin, and Tom McCulloch. The team was coached by Miss E. Allison. In the girls' match, the team of Lorriane Rigg, May Miller, Beryl Wilson, Tanis Cavers and Nellie Souka defeated the team of Janice Nixon, Anita Horvath, Helen Schutze, Fran Powell, and E. Allison by a score of 28 to 17. In honour of the visiting team, a dance was held immediately following the games. On the following day, Sunday, December 10, another game was played against the West Kildonan team with Pine Falls once again victorious, winning by a tally of 35 to 11. Pine Falls high scorers were Alphonse Hebert with 14 points, and Ray Hutchison with 9 points. An invitation was extended to the Pine Falls Club to visit West Kildonan for return games in the weekend of January 27, 1951.

The year 1951 was ushered in with a New Year's Frolic at the Recreation Centre when 500 people passed through the portals to celebrate in Cabaret style. In the downstairs waiting room of the skating and curling rinks, tables were set and decorated in "cabaret style" where dancers could sit to have come lunch or a drink. Bill Jackson reported that the evening was a great success due to the efforts of committee members like Messrs. Percy Gardiner, Barney Campbell, and School Principal George Sadler. In 1951, the Abitibi reported that the Company had hired an experienced ice maker, Mr. George Woods, to manage the hockey and curling rinks. Mr. Woods, with his wife Win, originally from the Killarney district, arrived from Selkirk with daughters Audrey, Arlie (Mrs. Bill McGuire), and Sharon Mr. Woods left the rink in 1961 to work for the townsite, and retired in 1971. Many will remember him for his great sense of humour and his gags which included elaborate props, around Bonspiel time.

In the fall of 1951, bush telephone connections to Camp 18 were suddenly cut off. On inspection of the line, it was discovered that a young bull moose had become entangled in the lines with the wire snagged in the antlers. Unfortunately, the moose did not survive the ordeal.

The year 1951 marked the arrival of another gentleman renowned for his wit and humour, when Mr. Jack Inkster was transferred from Rennie to become the District Ranger in Pine Falls. With Mrs. Inkster was transferred from Rennie to become the District Ranger in Pine Falls. With Mrs. Inkster and children Elaine, Ann, John, Jane and Robert he resided in the Ranger house and office which was located across from the Armoury and beside the old Legion Hall. (The house has since been demolished). Mr. Dan Wardrop, who had been District Ranger in town for six years, was transferred to Lac du Bonnet as Senior Forest Ranger.

Some local Abitibi Magazine editors in the fifties were Dick Willet, Ed Luchuk, Barney Campbell, and George Forsyth. Dick Willet, who returned to Pine Falls later as Office Manager, was famous for his great candid camera shots.

HOROSCOPE

(April 1 - April 7)

ARIES March 21 - April
New opportunities may develop out of your strong personal relationships. Stay open minded and flexible. Take the bull by the horns and try to overcome that emotional turmoil that's been bothering you. You can do it!

TAURUS April 20 - May 20
Last minute changes in plans can't throw you for a loop. Be flexible and ready with some ideas for the change. You can help coworkers feel more comfortable in a sticky situation if you cooperate with others and lead the way.

GEMINI May 21 - June 20
Is all your financial information in order? You had better get on it before it's time for you to start on your taxes. Don't let a relative or close friend push you into doing something you really don't want to do. Don't be afraid to be assertive.

CANCER June 21 - July 22
Are your family and friends feeling neglected because of your work and responsibilities? Set aside some time for them this week. A good friend has some valuable advice that could help with a problem at home, so don't brush it aside.

LEO July 23 - Aug. 22
Did you remember everything you were going to do for your taxes this year? Instead of tacking them on your own, this might be the year to turn to a professional. An acquaintance needs your help in the near future. Be there for him/her.

VIRGO August 23 - September 22
Clear your schedule by the weekend. It's time you spent a couple of days with your family. Your family members need you, and you really need them. Besides, time spent not working will make you even better equipped to tackle next week.

LIBRA Sept. 23 - Oct. 22
Be careful who you listen to when it comes to your taxes this year. You may not have gotten the best advice last year. Don't make the same mistake again. Busy days are ahead. Start planning for them now. Your organization will pay off in the end.

SCORPIO Oct. 23 - Nov. 21
Progressive thinking will keep that project you're working on fresh. You will stay open minded, too. Your boss will appreciate your ideas. Remember to thank the friend who has been so helpful to you the past couple of weeks.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22 - Dec. 21
Your busy schedule has kept you running, but don't forget one important thing - taxes. Get them done now before they get lost in the shuffle. If you think you're busy this week, next week should prove to be an even bigger challenge.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22 - Jan. 19
If a deal seems too good to be true, it probably is. Watch yourself. Don't jump in before you have all the facts. Read up on the project or investment and check out what consumer magazines have to say. Watch for tight deadlines at work.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
Do you need a new way to get an idea across? Approach the right people and give them a presentation that will knock their socks off. Your communication with a loved one may not be going well, so be careful of what you say.

PISCES Feb. 19 - March 20
You were wise to get your taxes done early. Have you decided what you want to do with your refund? Why not put it to good use? You could take a financial class so you can do your own taxes or learn how to invest more wisely.

OBITUARY

OBITUARY

Lawrence (Babe) Pachkowsky

It is with great sadness that we announce the loss of our dear Dad, Grandpa, and friend who was peacefully taken from us on March 27, 1999, at the Pine Falls Health Complex. After a courageous battle with cancer, God called him home.

Babe was born in Pine Falls, Manitoba on January 27th, 1934. He remained in the area and was employed with Abitibi Price until his retirement in July of 1992.

He was predeceased by his parents Stanley and Mary Pachkowsky, father-in-law Stuart Linklater and brother-in-law Doug Fountain.

He will leave to cherish his memory his three sons Cameron (Cheryl), Grant (Lori), Desmond (Michelle); his grandchildren Stephanie, Kyle, Chad, Brendan, Jeremy, and Aaron; his sisters Jenny Fountain, Sandy (Richard) Schrader; his brothers Norman (Helen) Pachkowsky, Julius (Joyce) Pachkowsky; special friend Viv, mother-in-law Margaret and many nieces, nephews and friends.

In his younger years, he was an avid golfer but his real passion always was and remained until this day, fishing. He took great pride in his garden and loved the outdoors. He loved his Chicago Blackhawks, Calgary Stampeders, and Chicago Cubs.

Dad, you were a caregiver all your life. We will always remember you for your smile, sense of humour and your beautiful blue eyes. For all the things you did for us, your heart was true and tender. On earth you held our hands, in heaven you will hold our hearts. Rest in peace dearest loved one.

The family would like to thank the Pine Falls Hospital doctors and nurses for their wonderful care. Also thank you to the Pine Falls Ambulance.

Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday, March 31, 1999 at 2:00p.m. at the Notre Dame du Laus Parish in Powerview, Manitoba with Rev. Father Rene Chartier officiating.

Family and friends may pay their respects at the church one half hour prior to the service. Pallbearers will be Dwight Legall, Brent Osis, Mike Romano, Chris Romano, Steve Odrodnik, and Bill Safruk.

Sobering Funeral Chapel and Crematorium in care of arrangements. Phone 1-367-2300.
