LAMENT

Every year brings changes, most of them intended to bring added comfort and convenience to the summer population of Victoria Beach.
 But oh, how I miss the little Red Pumps—that down to earth feeling of filling an elemental need through one's own effort, rather than standing passively by waiting for the pail to be filled at a tap.
 Those of us who were close to the pumps could sometimes cheerfully have throttled the people who chose the very early or "wee wee" hours for getting their water supplies, but we miss the happy sounds of little people trying their strength, and the squeals of delight and triumph when the water gushed from the spout.
 The little pumps look bereft, their handles removed—but time marches on—and progress pays little heed to nostalgic reverie.

CHILDREN'S SPORTS DAY

The field sports were held in Memorial Park on Thursday, July 22nd, under ideal weather conditions. The grounds were well prepared, and a wide track allowed spectators to see well, and also precluded the running of "heats." The local school of Victoria Beach, teachers and pupils, wish to express their thanks to Mrs. Winnifred Culbertson of 343 Sunset Blvd. for her most generous gift to the school of twenty-nine volumes of "Encyclopedia Britannica," complete with book case. Thank you!

CAMP ON ELK ISLAND
 Faith Bible Camp on Elk Island closed after a two-week session with a hundred and twenty five children and about 25 adults under canvas. The children were brought out July 2nd by Red River Bus service and returned the same way. Several parents visited the camp for the week end. It is hoped that the religious instruction which these children received will bear rich fruit in later years. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

ATTENTION, GIRLS!
 Barry Cundall and Don MacKay are down for the summer, working at Sutherland's Store.
