Children's Fishing Derby

Big fishermen, wee fishermen, boys and girls, long rods and short rods, lines on poles and hand-lines — shoulder to shoulder, the full length of the pier — such an array of fishermen!

There were fathers and mothers bringing lunch and helping the young ones bait the hook. There were moments of excitement until that one on the line was safely landed. There was disappointment too as the big one got away.

There was the little boy from Calgary who will always remember the day and Victoria Beach for he caught his very first fish and it won a prize, too.

There was good sportsmanship. One boy left his friend to look after his rod and the largest fish of the day grabbed the hook. This friend landed the fish but declined to claim the prize because it was on the other fellow's rod.

One boy had his stringer with several fish on it fall to the bottom. Not easily discouraged he got busy and fished it up again. His persistence was rewarded for the largest perch of the derby was on the stringer.

The girls caught many fish too, but it was not their year to get into the winner's list.

GARDEN CLUB NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Conklin topped an entry of 41 to win the Etta Nagle Grand Challenge Trophy for the best grounds at the Beach. Second prize went to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Verily. The Orchid Trophy for the best large garden went to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Splink with Jackie Darwin and Peggy Sprague placing second. The best natural grounds competition was won by Mr. W. Merkley with Mrs. Muriel Lapraik placing second. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Phillipovich won the trophy for the most improved grounds and Mrs. Frank Olson won the rock garden competition. The best small garden trophy for the Beach was won by Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Shevan. Mrs. John Ateah won the prize for the best vegetable garden; second Mrs. L. Lester.

On Saturday, August 19th from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. the Members of the Garden Club will entertain at a Garden Party at Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Milne's, 305 First Avenue. An invitation is extended to cottagers interested in joining the Club. Prizes won at the August 2nd Garden Festival will be presented.

THIS BEACH IS THE BERRIES

There are few places in the province that provide as much pleasure for the confirmed berry-picker, and as much delight for the epicurean as Victoria Beach.

Where else can you provide yourself with a fresh fruit dessert by going only a short distance from your front door whenever the spirit moves you? Where else can the housewife find pie filler growing on bushes in such variety and abundance, or material for jams, jellies and preserves so close at hand? Where else can an ordinary bowl of cereal be made into a luxury dish by adding freshly picked berries every morning?

By the time this appears in print the superb saskatoon crop of the present season will be finished, except for the odd bush in deep shade. But what a crop it has been! I have picked thousands of the deep purple berries as large as small grapes, sometimes using a ladder to speed up the process. At this moment raspberries are still in profusion all over the campsite. I will not presume to be specific in naming patches, since all the real experts know of places I never thought of. Those new to the Beach, however, have only to go behind the tennis courts to find the red beauties literally cluttering up the vines. The blueberries are just ripening, and will soon provide another delicious crop.

Wild Rose Berry Wine

Chokecherries and pincherries round out the season and provide the preserving experts with a winter's supply in return for very modest and enjoyable effort.

There are no doubt several other varieties of which I have no knowledge. Certainly the hazel nut crop appears to be headed for a good year, for those who know what to do with them.

This dry season, with its bright sun and high winds has reduced the density of the foliage, but at the same time given the berries the conditions they thrive on. Why not take advantage of them and pick yourself a treat?

A German friend of mine makes marvellous wine from the wild rose berries, which will be ripening within the next two weeks. I don't know her recipe, but have tasted the finished product, and it is superb.

Finally the thought occurs that if the Australian, Whitfield, who is suffering in the northern Ontario bush, were to pick this locale for his next experiment in living off the land, he would find it a copper-riveted cinch, and probably get fat in the process.

Letter To The Editor

The Editor, Victoria Beach Herald.

Hurrah for the editorial in the Winnipeg Tribune! After coming down to the same cottage for 35 years, and latterly from Calgary and now Ottawa, I feel I am in a position to state an opinion. It is the exclusion of cars that has kept this Beach what it is, an unique spot of peace and beauty. Those who object to this carless life knew the conditions when they came here. If being able to drive a car to the cottage is a "must" for them, they have unlimited choice of resorts to pick from. In fact Victoria Beach is the only one they should avoid!

However, I do have a suggestion which might eliminate the tiresome loading and unloading, from car to taxi and from taxi to car. Wouldn't it be possible to have qualified drivers to drive the owners car to the cottage, unload it and drive it back to the parking lot? This does not mean any more cars on the road, merely the substitute of private car for taxi, on arriving at the Beach and when leaving the Beach. Those who did not trust their cars to anybody else could still make use of the taxi, the fees being possibly the same either way.

Yours for preserving the status quo.
 Eileen Chandler Wilson.
 This suggestion has been studied at length by Council on previous occasions. With so many cars it would be impossible to assume responsibility for breakage and the many other problems introduced by the suggested system of having drivers.

FOUR SEASONS OF THE BEACH

By C. B. Grover

It has often occurred to me that many residents of Victoria Beach have a heavy investment in real estate. The use they get from it. Most cottages represent a minimum investment of $4,000, including furniture. Many run to more than double that amount. The majority are actually used for not more than three months in each year.

Granted that June, July, August have the highest temperatures, the best swimming, and are the time of some wonderful activities, I suggest that many owners might take a good hard look at the rest of the calendar. Anyone who has missed the marvellous fall coloring of Victoria Beach in September and October has missed something of rare beauty.

The Fall is Beautiful

The days are bright, and frequently surprisingly warm, as the big lake provides considerable latent heat from the warmth of the summer sun. It may come as a surprise to many to realize the golf and tennis courts were in use as late as last Thanksgiving, and that quite a number of hardy souls enjoyed a swim on October 8th. If there ever was a season of enjoyable walks, this is it. By day there is a golden cast to everything, enhanced by the green of coniferous trees. By night, a bright moon changes everything to silver and black, relieved only by the lights from the cottages of the post-season enthusiasts. Birds of many species never seen in the summer, pause here on their south-bound migrations. If there is anything more relaxing than a day at the lake under these circumstances, then an evening around a bright warm fireplace in the company of friends and family, I have not found it.

After such a day, sleeping in the cool night temperatures is sheer luxury. And breakfast the next morning is something to drool over.

Convenience

Considering that little more than an hour and one half's drive over excellent roads now gets most of us to that lake, and remembering that cars can be driven right to your cottage door after Labor Day, the reward is well worth the effort. Any well-built cottage with a good supply of wood and a few pieces of coal to keep the fire burning overnight, can easily cope with seasonal temperatures in the Fall, and the deep wells supply water all year round.

Late Fall and Winter

From mid November on, the winter types still persist in coming down. Their number is not so great, but their enthusiasm still burns brightly. For, after all, the coming of winter brings a new and very interesting appearance to the forest area in which our resort lies. The snow gives a Christmas card appearance to trees and cottages and incidentally insulates the roof. The lack of wind makes the brisk air much more bearable. Of course, one must dress in accordance with the temperature. A good fireplace and a warm kitchen range will keep most cottages quite bearable down to about 25 degrees. Below that an oil or propane heater is a must, unless you want to get up during the night to replenish the fires. A fair number of cottages have been insulated to make them more comfortable for overnight use. Winter week-ends can be anything but dull. With curling at the local rink, skating, snowshoeing and tobogganing down to and on the frozen lake, the sports enthusiasts can keep as busy as they wish. Fishing through the ice in the bay by the pier may prove rewarding, though I cannot vouch for it. The hospitality of the permanent local inhabitants is always most heart-warming; two stores are open all year round, at one of which you can get a good hot meal. This last year a good many roads within the campsite were plowed out by the municipality, making access to most cottages quite realistic. On the basis of temperatures of the last two years, winter use of Victoria Beach is certainly not impractical for many weekends.

In Spring, Too

From April on, the miracle of spring is dramatically acted out with the forest as a stage and the vast ice-bound lake as a backdrop. Fir, spruce, pine and balsam become green even before the snow leaves the ground. The ice on the lake breaks up slowly, but from one weekend to the next one can detect its deterioration, and finally the mass shrinks until by mid May it can be seen drifting about, driven every which way by the wind. Not too much of it moves north, but melts, I believe, in the wide area south of Black Island. While the breakup is taking place, the gulls and ducks use strips of open water as a station on the way north. In the woods the hardy juncos and warblers perch and twitter as they, too migrate in the same direction. This is a wonderful season to walk along the shore to the point closest to Elk Island to explore the high sand cliffs facing Traverse Bay, to see the hundreds of ducks on Lost Lake and to listen to the frogs croaking from the marsh. Visits to the milk ranches in the area are always most interesting too, for this is a most important local industry and conducted very efficiently.

I could go on, ad infinitum, but why not see for yourselves? Believe me it is worth the effort.

The Rural Municipality of Victoria Beach and The Schools

Thirty-six cents of each one dollar tax revenue in the Municipality of Victoria Beach is paid over to the School Boards identified with this Municipal division. The present rate represents an increase since 1958 of 200%. This tripling of school tax is more or less general throughout the province and has come about for the most part as a result of the enactment of the Education Act of 1959 by the Manitoba Government. The Education Act became effective on April 1, 1959 and created the various School Divisions throughout the province. The so called Divisions in no way altered the existence of the School Districts which have been in existence for many years. Generally speaking the School Districts are still financially responsible for the Elementary School requirements and the newly created Divisions are responsible for High Schools. There are separate Boards to administer the affairs of each. The foregoing is a brief general description of the province wide school plan, there are many exceptions and in some areas the administration is carried on by trustee and in other areas the School Boards administer both elementary and high schools. In general terms it can be said that the 1959 expansion of facilities has been long overdue and undoubtedly will raise the level of education in the province in years to come. It does however, place an added financial burden on tax payers and particularly hard hit are cottage-owners who have already been subjected to the increased costs of education as property owners in the city or elsewhere.

Victoria Beach has become part of the Lord Selkirk School Division No. 11. This Division has two High Schools, the largest of which is located in the Town of Selkirk. There are 34 class rooms and an auditorium which enables this school to accommodate the high school students residing South of Lake Winnipeg and in the general area extending down the Red River Valley South to Lockport and taking in all of St. Andrews Municipality. Another four class room high school is now located at the junction of the Victoria Beach Highway and the cut off to Grand Beach, (Rudy's Corner).

These two schools service seven municipalities which make up the Lord Selkirk School Division No. 11. Victoria Beach is the most northerly and St. Andrews and Brokenhead the most southerly. There are nearly 1,000 high school students in this area and most of these must travel several miles to and from school each day. To solve this problem of transportation the School Division own and operate seven buses and will require more as time goes on. It is anticipated that the high school population will increase to double the present number over the next five years.

Most property owners realize that we are living in a dynamic age, and the adults of the next decade must be given the opportunity to understand and play a part in the scientific achievements that are taking place and will take place. The rural student is entitled to participate along with city dwelling students and at the same time live at home during this phase of his education. The tax payers of Victoria Beach look to the elected representatives of the Lord Selkirk School Division No. 11 to see that their school tax dollars are well administered and that there is a minimum of wastage. We are fortunate in having conscientious citizens willing to assume these responsibilities. Mr. Walter Whyte, a long time resident of Victoria Beach, is a representative in the Lord Selkirk School Division Board and the new school at Rudy's corner has been named to honor him.

Choosing a Vacation Spot

The more complicated our lives become, and the more elaborate the machinery of living is made, the more necessary it is to create the temporary retreat from reality which we call play. Recreation is a major need for old as well as young. As the German philosopher Nietzsche wrote: "In every man there is a child who wants to play."

Part of the standard of living of North America is the wilds of Canada. Gregory Clark went so far as to say in his booklet With Rod and Reel in Canada: "Canada is fortunate in having considerable areas unfit for anything forever save recreation."

There is no ready-made vacation pattern into which people of all sizes and shapes must fit. Some may like the thrill of digging in the ages-old badlands of the Red Deer Valley, where dinosaurs departed themselves in the shallow sea of the Mesozoic Age. Others prefer the Annapolis Valley, where Champlain raised his habitation and founded the Order of the Good Time only 350 years ago.

Snowy slopes, mineral springs, trout-filled streams, woods and hills peopled with game animals, mountain trails, sun-swept beaches: all these are to be found in Canada.

There is little difference, really, between the recreation needs of the businessman who gets away from his office to fish a Quebec stream and the housewife who, in sentimental mood, sits in Beacon Hill Park in Victoria when the moon is on the wane and sees a ghostly company of Druids walking in solemn procession beneath the giant oaks. Both accumulate cherished memories of pleasant surroundings, the mental tonic of peaceful hours. For the time being they have escaped into another room of life.

Last Sunday's Church Service

By Glen Lester

Rev. Fraser Muldrew spoke on the conversion of John Wesley. He said one had to trust in the Lord alone for his salvation before he could find complete satisfaction and faith. He also said that natural man is ignorant of God and his ways. We must be reborn again and justified by faith in Christ. For faith gives us the power to discern that which is good.

Soloist was Mr. E. A. Gilliat. He sang "Set a Watch Before My Mouth." The flowers were from the garden of Miss K. Ball.

Service next Sunday will be conducted by Canon F. Glover.
