ODDS AND SODS

Did you attend Town Hall? No? Then you and many others must be happy with the way your community club is being run. Either that or you are suffering from the same apathy which spills over into so many of our lives these days. Don't let this same apathy keep you from voting on July 25.

Please note a misprint on the activities card. Baseball is Monday to Friday—NOT Saturday, except for Father and Son July 19th.

Perhaps you noticed the Bus Schedule which was supplied for us by the Grey Goose Lines was effective for the first week in July only. New times are printed this week, but it would be advisable for anyone leaving from Winnipeg to check with the bus depot each time. Sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.

COMMUNITY CHURCH SERVICE

Last Sunday's Church Service at the Clubhouse was conducted by Rev. Dr. W. G. Onions, Oxford United Church, Winnipeg.

The topic he chose was "What a Church Is". He summed it up in three segments.

1. The people of God where the Gospel is truly preached. (The news of God's Love).

2. Where Baptism and Communion are administered. Baptism being a symbol of new life.

3. Discipline.

"Today," he said, "everything is being ruthlessly attacked, including the church." Therefore love has become the new binding factor. As Christ said. "You will be known by your love one for another." This must be the church of today.

VEE-BEE!

We are pleased to announce that our bright orange whale has a name. Thanks to Susie Hughes our whale was christened "Vee-Bee". There were nearly forty posters entered and the judges had difficulty in deciding on the best name. Susan Hughes age 5 won the first prize which was a miniature replica of our whale. Ribbons went to Robbie Howe with the name "Wiggles" and to Sandra Jackson for her whale named "Marina". An additional ribbon went to Eric Olafson for the best drawn poster.

Now don't give up! You may be one of our next winners. In the two sessions to come July 14 to July 25 and July 28 to August 8, additional poster contests will be run. Do you know a good water safety rule? Everyone does, so write it down and illustrate it with a drawing. Originality, colour and the importance of the rule will be taken into consideration by the judges. Your poster can be handed in to your swimming instructor on the Thursday before the end of each session. Best of luck, and, think safety!

SHAPE UP

Instead of just sitting there, come on out and work those muscles at "Swim to Gimli" from 4:00 - 5:00, Monday to Friday. There are two trophies waiting to be claimed, one for the first boy to finish and one for the first girl to finish and ribbons for the first ten finishers. Lorne Stevens is currently in the lead for the boys with Lynn Allen following second. Congratulations go to Jan Hughes who completed her twenty mile swim on July 17 and is thinking of a return adventure. Nancy Waters is rapidly pulling up second. So come on out and see if you can catch them and maybe win a ribbon!

"I CAN'T GO IN. IT'S TOO COLD"

Due to the ice cubes in the lake, courtesy of the 2:30 Senior Class, our first week of swimming lessons was conducted on land. For this reason the swimmers were not ready for their usual sessional test. But these past two weeks have improved enough that we were able to pass a few of our beginners.

Splashers—

Billy Donovan, David Knox, Jamie Irving.

Minnows—

Jonathan Garland, Margo Stevenson, Larissa Prychun, Clint Bowman, Jill Bowman, Rose-Marie Bowman, Lauren Anderson, Sandra Jackson, Grant Thorvaldson.

Beginners—

Rob Lane, Perry David, Eric Olafson.

So if the weather stays kind to us our swimmers should begin to shape up as the instructors continue to burn up!

July 26—again on Saturday—"The Fifth" will play at the Clubhouse for the Regatta Dance.

Last weekend the "Flying Turkeys Quorum" was present at Victoria Beach. In attendance were 1st Gear, Reverse, 3rd Gear, and the newly admitted Overdrive. Despite inclement weather conditions they had one — of a good time.

Turtle and Barney were staying at Moose's cottage at Albert, and ever-present Chon was at Victoria again.

Bad Moons rose Tuesday night with everyone hamming it up after the movies. "Hamstands" were frequently seen . . . guffaw, guffaw.

I.H.P.A. convention was held at the beach with H. Hinter and R. Reiss co-presidents. The fans are pleased to announce that Harold was not down last weekend.

Rob Brown is having a great summer sitting around doing nothing. After watching TV on Friday night, Bruiser decided to dress up and do the town. Shortly afterwards he was seen at the dance in his full-length raincoat.

Marcia is staying for a couple of weeks at Mary-Lou's cottage on Pine Road.

Nancy Backhouse didn't take her beloved Teddy Bear to Vancouver, and found that she couldn't sleep for the two weeks that she was there. Janie McGillivray, of Vancouver, is now visiting Nancy at her cottage on 3rd.

Kathy Kortikow is renting at Belair until the end of July, but it seems that she and Lillian spend more time at Victoria Beach.

What Prime Minister of Canada was visiting on Sunset on the night of the Masquerade?

For the 3rd week in a row Kerry Williams has had his name in this paper.

BEACH BEHAVIOR

You are reminded that all dogs must be on leashes in the beach area. This rule is to protect small children who can be knocked down or frightened by dogs excited by all the noise and fun on the beach. These small children can't tell the difference between a playful and an unfriendly dog so they are afraid of both. They feel a lot safer when the dog is on the leash.

Discarded soft drink bottles are another danger on the beach. These bottles are frequently broken, either deliberately or accidentally, and pose a serious threat to unwary paddlers and swimmers. It can mean a very unhappy summer for the victims so we ask your help and cooperation in keeping the beach tidy and clear of this particular menace.
