

Police raid Grow-operation in Stead Manitoba

By Charles Norman

A marijuana grow operation has been uncovered in a farm house near Stead. The basement of the house, on the old Stead Road, close to the intersection with the new Hwy #304, contained a total of 572 plants with a street value well in excess of $150,000. Various items of drug paraphernalia were also seized.

The basement has three rooms which all contained plants at different stages of growth. There was an expensive and sophisticated lighting and electrical system obviously designed and built by professionals.

In an RCMP raid Friday afternoon, November 3, a 37 year-old man, Tung Hoang Ho was arrested. Corporal Jeff Moyes, who made the arrest, said the police investigation revealed that Tung Ho was hired for the purpose of tending the grow operation. He has been charged with growing marijuana. Corporal Moyes said the operation was discovered before the first crop could be harvested, causing a substantial financial loss to the owner. He said that the house was mortgaged and ownership would revert to the mortgage holder.

The RCMP became aware of the operation after they had received reports of suspicious farming activities in the area.

It is not the first time that the house has been used for a grow operation. About seven or eight years ago the same house was found to be being used for the production of marijuana. At that time the owner of the operation, and not just the "gardener" was arrested. Substantial amounts of his property were seized and disposed of as being obtained from the proceedings of crime. He is still in jail.

Cpl Moyes asked for the support of the public in reporting any unusual farming activities.

2006 Hunting season in progress

Hunting season is underway for several species in many areas of the province and will continue through the fall and winter.

Rifle hunters who were successful in the 2006 big game draw for elk around Riding Mountain National Park in game hunting areas (GHA) 23 and 23A also have the opportunity to hunt moose if they choose to purchase conservation moose licences, valid during the season dates indicated on the elk licence.

Changes for 2006 include the prohibition of vehicles from March 1 to Nov. 30 in the Portage Sandhills Wildlife Management Area in GHA 32. For hunters using the Canadian Forces Base Shilo, safety briefing sessions begin on Nov. 1 and are offered three times a day until the end of the season.

The hunting seasons for grouse and grey (Hungarian) partridge are underway and run until Dec. 17. The ptarmigan hunting season runs until Jan. 31.

The migratory game bird hunting season is also underway for resident and non-resident hunters.

For residents only, the wild turkey hunting season closed Oct. 15.

The big game hunting season includes:

- White-tailed deer - Archery and muzzleloader seasons are currently underway in all zones. The rifle season opens Nov. 13.

- Moose - In specific GHAs the winter moose season in draw and non-draw areas opens on Dec. 4 for resident hunters.

- Elk - Winter elk seasons open on Dec. 18. Elk seasons around Riding Mountain National Park will open on Dec. 4, Jan. 1 and Jan. 15.

- Black bear - The fall portion of the black bear season is now closed.

- Caribou - The winter season in GHA 1 opens on Nov. 1 and runs until the end of February. In GHAs 2 and 3, seasons close on Jan. 31. The season in GHA 2 opens on Nov. 27.

- The winter portion of the shotgun or muzzleloader season for white-tailed deer in GHA 33 only will resume on Dec. 4 for residents only.

Hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset. Youth are encouraged to join a licensed adult hunter using one of the special low-cost licences that are available for youth hunters. Youth hunters between the ages of 12 and 17 who have successfully completed the Manitoba Hunter Education Course or a similar course from another province are eligible to participate using any of the following options:

- shared bag limits,
- separate bag limits,
- special youth hunting licences, or
- mentored hunting.

Over 147,000 students have graduated from the Manitoba Hunter Education program since its mandatory inception in 1969. By taking this program, the chance of becoming involved in some form of hunting incident has been reduced to less than one half of one per cent. The program is now operated by the Manitoba Wildlife Federation.

Hunters are reminded to follow all rules. Recent violations have resulted in enforcement action and some of the most significant fines on record in Manitoba for violations of the Wildlife Act and the Wild Animal and Plant Protection and Regulation of International and Interprovincial Trade Act clearly show support for the protection of wildlife within Manitoba.

Further information on season dates and bag limits is available from the 2006 Manitoba Hunting Guide, licence vendors, Manitoba Conservation offices and the website at <http://www.gov.mb.ca/conservation/wildlife/hunting>.

2006 Hunting forecasts
In 2006, big game hunting in Manitoba should be very similar to 2005.

White-tailed deer hunting continues to show a very high success rate. Hunters in the rifle season in 2005 had a success rate of 69 per cent. Over 7,500 second deer tags for antlerless deer were also sold. The success rate for this tag was over 70 per cent. High deer population levels continue into 2006. For hunters who want a quiet, quality hunt, there are opportunities in almost every portion of the province's deer range. The widespread abundance of deer has resulted in the expansion of the second deer licence in many GHAs in the Duck Mountain and Porcupine Mountain areas of western Manitoba.

Elk hunting is changing in Manitoba. The elk herd in the Riding Mountain area was reduced in population in response to concerns about bovine tuberculosis. Few elk has reduced success rates. The Interlake elk herd is substantial with over 1,000 animals and the young herd in the Turtle Mountain area seems to be thriving and continues to provide hunting opportunities for archers and rifle hunters.

The numbers of moose and moose hunters have stabilized recently. The success rate for general moose hunters is approximately 17 per cent. A draw season has been reintroduced for GHA 8, southeast of The Pas in the Saskatchewan River Delta. As noted earlier, elk hunters again have the opportunity to hunt moose in the Riding Mountain area by purchasing a Manitoba Conservation moose licence which allow two hunters to share one tag.

Black bear and caribou hunting are virtually unchanged, with very stable levels of populations and demand.

Reports from spring upland bird surveys and observations from field staff indicate a very good hatch of ruffed grouse and sharp-tailed grouse. Hunters should expect to encounter better than average numbers of these species in the field this fall.

The early harvest of cereal grains in southern Manitoba in 2006 will most likely result in migratory birds spending less time in the province this fall. However, above-average production of ducks and geese in northern Manitoba and Nunavut should provide for great hunting opportunities throughout the season.

Local youth recognized for Fire Safety Poster

Gillian Mazerolle has yet again proved why her art work in the area of Fire Safety, provides benefits, earning respect amongst her peers and receiving considerate awards for a job well done.

During school hours on October 26th, 2006, Ken Boulette, the Fire Protection Officer for the Manitoba Association of Native Firefighters, presented Gillian with a payment of three hundred ($300) dollars as well as a certificate, compliments of the Aboriginal Firefighter's Association of Canada (AFAC).

Gillian's art work was judged in Ottawa where her art work competed against hundreds of other students from across Canada. The Sagkeeng Fire Department's Fire Chief Ron Guimond and Deputy Christian Edwards also presented Gillian with a hundred ($100.00) cheque and a Certificate of Achievement.

Gillian's initial submission to the Manitoba Fire Safety poster contest not only took first place in the province, but has also subsequently earned her a fruitful bonus any kid would appreciate. Blaze the Eagle and Sparky the Fire Dog were also present and offered their congratulations.

We strongly encourage more children to enter the annual Fire Safety Poster Contest.

National winners are awarded an all expense paid trip to the National Firefighter's competition. This years poster contest will be officially underway during the next couple of weeks. Congratulations to Gillian Mazerolle.

Midget Girls' hockey team win season opener

Shut Out for Goal Tender Stephanie Godard

The Girls' Midget Hockey team had a great season opener playing at home to beat the A ranked Altona team 3-0. The number one game star, goal tender Stephanie Godard, took 58 shots and got through the teams' 17 minor penalties!

Goals were scored by Katie Mysak on a beautiful feed from Chelsea Nault, a blistering slap shot by Chelsea Nault from Katie Mysak and an unassisted security goal from the rushing defense of Kayla Chomokovski.

All of the girls worked hard and were defensively strong against the much bigger Altona team. The girls' next home game is a double header against Morden this Sunday in the Pine Falls Arena at 2:00pm. For some great entertainment, come out and watch the girls play.

Co-op Gym could find home in Powerview

A Co-op gym offers flexibility and a healthy resource for small town communities.

The residents of Grandview Manitoba have opened a Co-op fitness centre, complete with a card lock system that allows members full time access. The Co-op group purchased $20,000 worth of new state of the art equipment and it is already debt free.

Gymnasiums are often foreign species in small towns. Many towns don't have the population base to make a private gym profitable. That is what faced the residents of Grandview.

One of the key ingredients for the success of the Co-op gym is the members. In grandview they had local physicians who helped promote the idea of a healthier lifestyles to the people. Volunteers staged various fund-raising events. They had approximately 150 people, some of whom have never even used the gym but believed in the cause, donated a one-time payment of $100. That was not bad for a town of 800 people.

The new fitness centre is located in the basement of the old russet brick post office. Members have donated a TV, VCR and cd player and they see to it that the gym is well maintained. There is also a bathroom and single shower stall. The Co-op has 50 members ranging in age from 16 to 60 plus. They pay a flat rate of $200 per year for their membership. Other sports clubs have also used the Co-op for training camps etc.

There are other local Co-op gyms going up in other small communities such as Ste. Rose du Lac, Roblin and Gilbert Plains. One member stated that if you treat it like it is your own you have some sense of ownership and that is a commitment. Studies have shown that obesity has become a major health risk in Canada and the problem is greater in rural areas. Statistics Canada found 29 percent of Canadians living outside urban centres were obese compared to 20 percent in urban areas. There are many reasons for this health issue, some being the absence of gyms in rural areas, more mechanized operations of farms, others have criticized the now ubiquitous all terrain vehicles or quads that everyone seem to be using. Nobody is walking anywhere these days.

There is a group of individuals who are currently looking at a "Co-op gym venture" in our community. If you are interested, there is a meeting set for Monday November 13th at 7:00 pm at the Town of Powerview-Pine Falls Board room.

Half-Marathon planned for Traverse Bay

By Charles Norman
 Natasha Joy Smith is in the early stages of planning for a half-marathon to be held in Traverse Bay next year. The race, a little over 13 miles, (21 km) will take place on July 28 2007 along the western shore of Traverse Bay. Parts of the race will be on the beach itself, other parts on roads close to the lake shore. Over the same course, on the same day, will be three two-person relays - one for men, one for women, and one mixed. The event will be supporting the Winnipeg Humane Society and Darcy's Arc, (a pet shelter). In recognition of this a two-mile pet walk will also be part of the days events. Runners will have the option of raising pledges for the two charities and 30% of entry fees will be donated to the two charities. The highest pledge earner will win a portrait of their pet on stone by local wildlife artist Wendy Wach. Registration fees for the half-marathon are $75, (less for early registrations), and $10 for the pet walk. Entry forms and pledge forms are available at any Winnipeg running store, or can be downloaded from .

Natasha Smith organized a series of four East Beaches Wellness Centre Fun Runs earlier this year. She has been teaching fitness for ten years and is a certified triathlon and cycling coach. She is certified in Aquatic Fitness, Aerobics, Resistance Training and Fitness for Older Adults. She is rural coordinator for the Manitoba Fitness Council who earlier this year named her Fitness Leader of the Year. She graduated from the University of Winnipeg at the head of her class last year with a degree in Kinesiology and Applied Health. (Kinesiology is the science of human movement).

Natasha Smith is planning the Traverse Bay Half Marathon

Remembrance Day Services

Veterans Dinner beginning at 4:00 pm, everyone is welcome. Guest Speaker this year will be Manitoba and Northwest Ontario Command Vice President Rita Bell. In Pine Falls the service will be at the Cenotaph outside the Legion Hall. It will begin at 10:50, with the two minutes of silence beginning at 11:00 as it does throughout the Commonwealth. After the service there will be tomato soup and sandwiches in the hall. The bar will be open at noon.

If you want to keep up with our military operations overseas and at home make sure to pick up two DVD's which were supplied to us by the Canadian National Defence. These are entitled "Proudly Serving Canada - Canadian Forces 2004 Year in Review" and "2005 Year in Review".

For children you might want to take home the new "My Canada series" book written by Anne Renaud. "A Bloom of Friendship" is beautifully illustrated and contains the story of the dark days of the Second World War.

Nazi Germany's invasion of the Netherlands in May 1940 marked the beginning of five years of terror for the Dutch people. More than 30,000 people died of starvation during the Hunger Winter of 1944 to 1945.

In this time of despair, Canada came to the rescue, playing the largest role in liberating the Netherlands and ending the Nazi reign of terror. Out of these dark times an eternal friendship was forged. "Canada and the Liberation of the Netherlands, May 1945" is told through interviews with Dutch survivors and Canadian veterans.

"Bloody Victory" by J. L. Granatstein and Desmond Morton is a book on Canadians and the D-Day Campaign 1944.

We will be closed for Remembrance Day on November 11th, but encourage you to come to the library ahead of time and borrow some books and DVD's from our special display.

Pine Falls Preschool

by Kathie Duff

I hope everyone had fun Trick or Treating and the snow and did not put too much of a damper on your little ones fun.

For us at the Pine Falls Preschool it was a busy month.

October 2-6: We talked about Thanksgiving and Harvest; we talked about all the things we were thankful for. We made Thankful turkeys, Thanksgiving Dinners and a Horns of Plenty. I brought in a display for the children to see which shows the framing process from seeding to harvest.

October 9: We were closed for Thanksgiving.

October 10-13: We talked about Book Week. The children were busy making bookmarks and creating their own personalized storybooks.

October 16-31: The children were very busy making marble spider webs, rice pumpkins, foot ghosts and paper pumpkin collages. We carved a pumpkin that one of the children's families donated for our Halloween party. The children had a great time at their parties bobbing for apples, playing toss the bean bag in the pumpkins mouth and the spaghetti squash surprise. The highlight was trick or treating in our classroom with our friends and the 3 year olds went to Pineview Lodge to sing for the seniors.

We also had two birthdays during the month of October, which we celebrated by eating cupcakes, which were donated by parents.

Thank you to all those people who bought some baking products and contributed to our fundraising event. The products should be arriving soon.

November will be another busy month for us. Our themes for the month include:

November 1-5: Numbers
November 6-9: Transportation
November 10: We will be closed for Remembrance Day
November 11-17: Community Workers
November 20-24: Nutrition

November 27-December 1: Christmas

On Sunday November 26th we will be having a BAKE SALE at the Pine Falls Golf Course from 1:00-5:00 p.m. Please come on by and buy some baking or come cheer on our children as they perform for your enjoyment. I'd like to end by reminding you that there are only 53 shopping days till Christmas. Have a great November!

The story behind Manitoba names

Whether you are from Manitoba or not, stories behind the place names on the Manitoba map are sometimes outrageous and hilarious, and at other times tragic and solemn. They all have truth as only westerners can express it. The book The Story Behind Manitoba Names: How Cities, Towns, Villages, and Whistle Stops Got Their Names is now to the library and filled with over 500 entries that will leave you laughing out loud.

The Minister of Family Services and Housing has sent pamphlets and information to the library to inform citizens that November is Domestic Violence Prevention Month. This is a province-wide effort to increase awareness of domestic violence and the resources that are available to families affected by this destructive issue. The campaign is titled "Domestic Violence Destroys Families" and pamphlets are available at the library. Please note that a visit to the library is held in strict confidence.

More new books are adorning our shelves everyday, come on in and CHECK it out!

See you in the library.

What About Your Mouth?

Your mouth speaks a lot of words in one day. If you're a man you speak an average of 20,000 words a day. If you're a woman you speak an average of 30,000 words a day. In one year that would fill up about 66 books of 800 pages each. What is of greater importance though is "what we speak." Our mouths can get us into a lot of trouble. Some of us are born with a silver foot in our mouth. Here is what the Bible says about our tongue: "But no one can tame the tongue. It is restless and evil, full of deadly poison. Sometimes it praises our Lord and Father, and sometimes it curses those who have been made in the image of God. And so blessing and cursing come out of the same mouth. Surely my brothers and sisters, this is not right." (James 3:5-10)

Jesus said it this way, "For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks." (Matthew 12:34)

What comes out of our mouths displays who we are. The Bible says it's actually a "heart problem." A person with a harsh tongue has an angry heart. A person with a negative tongue has a fearful heart. A person with a boasting tongue has an insecure heart. A person with a filthy tongue has an impure heart. On the other hand a person who is always speaking encouraging words has a happy heart. A person who speaks truthfully has an honest heart.

Let me ask you what comes out of your mouth on a regular basis?

So what is the solution to fixing up our mouth? 3 things I want to suggest:
1. Think before you speak. "Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry. (James 1:19) Think about what you've said this past day. What would you change?

2. Ask God for help each day. You need supernatural power to control your tongue. A good prayer to pray is "Set a guard over my mouth, O Lord; keep watch over the door of my lips."

3. Get a new heart. Ezekiel 18:31 "Rid yourself of all offenses you have committed and get a new heart and a new spirit." Painting the outside of the pump doesn't make any difference if there is poison in the well.

Ask God to give you a new heart as you put your faith in His Son Jesus Christ. "Therefore if any one be in Christ, they are a new person. The old has passed away. Behold all things become new!" (2 Cor. 5:17)

The Farmland School Tax Rebate

The Manitoba government has increased the farmland school tax rebate to 60%.

This increased rebate is part of the government's commitment to help support the rural economy and provide tax relief to farm families.

A 60% rebate will be available to individuals who paid 2006 school taxes on farmland.

How it works:

If you own farmland in Manitoba and you paid your 2006 property taxes, you are eligible for the rebate. Your farmland does not currently have to be in cultivation or used for grazing to be eligible for the rebate. The rebate applies only to the farmland portion of your school taxes and does not apply to residences or buildings on your farmland.

How to apply

If you received a rebate for 2005, an application form has been mailed to you. Otherwise to apply for the rebate, simply download an application form from the Manitoba government website (www.manitoba.ca), call 1-866-Manitoba (1-866-626-4862) or pick one up from your local Manitoba Agricultural Services Corporation office, Manitoba Agriculture, Food and Rural Initiatives GC Centre or GC Office or Rural municipal office.

Some people remember their school days with great pleasure. There were favourite teachers, friends, and clubs. They remember fondly the people and things which made a difference in their lives.

Others are not so fortunate. For those victimized by bullying, childhood and going to school may have been filled with feelings of embarrassment, humiliation, and rejection, as they were harassed, picked on, or maybe even physically abused.

Bullying is ongoing mistreatment by an aggressor who torments a victim, commonly attacking in one or more of these ways: verbally, physically, emotionally, sexually, or through the internet.

Because bullies like the power and attention their role provides, often peers or other bystanders find themselves witnesses to bullying. The good news is, research shows that most of the time even a verbal intervention by peers is often enough to stop the bullying!

Signs that your child is being bullied may include bruises and scrapes, depression, anxiety, loneliness, low self-esteem, fear of going to school, crying before and after school, feeling sick, thinking about suicide, lack of interest in social events that include other students, unexplained broken or lost personal possessions or money.

Key steps on managing bullying include taking action right away: Talk to the adults in charge of the place where the bullying occurs. Calmly listen to your child and find out exactly what has been happening and what solutions they've already tried. Summarize the problem. Tell your child some possible reasons for the bullying. Ask your child's opinion on how to deal with the problem. Think of a number of options and choose the ones that seem reasonable and likely to work. Act out the solution with your child before they try it out. Check if the chosen solution is successful.

If bullying is happening in the school or on the way to school, include teachers, counsellors, bus drivers and principals in your problem solving. If bullying is happening in the community, additional solutions may be found by talking to your local police department, neighbours, or sports/activity coach, and (only) if you feel safe, by contacting the bully's parents.

In helping your child deal with the bullying, after you and your child brainstorm solutions, also consider the following tips:

-Walk away - it's always safer for your child not to retaliate by using physical force.

-Tell an adult - teachers, principals, parents, and lunch room staff can all help stop bullying.

-Talk about it. Talking to a caring person can help reduce the feelings of isolation and hopelessness.

-Use the buddy system.
-Reinforce with your child that the bully is the problem, not them.

Sometimes bullying might be diffused or deflected by using simple techniques like humour, using different routes, or showing no emotion to the bully (and later discussing it with a caring adult).

Other preventive actions you can take include:

-Teaching self-respect because a confident child is less likely to be confronted by a bully.

-Talking positively to your child and avoiding labelling which will improve your child's self-esteem.

-Teaching your child to use positive self-talk (like a silent pep talk).

-Allowing your child to express anger and be assertive, while still being respectful.

-Teaching the use of "I" statements to allowing expression in a clear, yet diplomatic fashion.

-Encouraging your child to develop friendships.

Report from Legislature

By Gerald Hawranik, M.L.A. for Lac du Bonnet
Official Opposition Finance Critic

The Canadian Wheat Board

A large part of Manitoba's economy is agriculture, and a large part of agriculture is the production of grain in this Province. In our area the largest part of our total agriculture economy is grain production. The Canadian Wheat Board is therefore an important institution to our area. The Canadian Wheat Board and its role is a Federal issue, not a Provincial one, though I thought that given the importance of the Canadian Wheat Board to our area, it was important to make comment about it.

Because of our geographic remoteness from ports and the direct and indirect benefits that accrue from the Canadian Wheat Board headquarters in Manitoba, where more than 400 people are employed, proposals by the Federal government to alter the mandate of the Canadian Wheat Board will have an impact on Manitoba's economy.

The decision on the Canadian Wheat Board must equally consider all players in Canada's grain industry. However, when we are discussing the future of the Wheat Board we must consider what is best for farmers and the grain industry. As a result, Hugh MacFadyen, the leader of the Official Opposition, wrote to Prime Minister Stephen Harper, explaining to him that while the Progressive Conservative Caucus of Manitoba supports the expansion of marketing choice, farmers should be consulted through a plebiscite on any fundamental changes to the Canadian Wheat Board's mandate. Farmers need to be consulted, and farmers need to decide the Canadian Wheat Board's future.

On a personal note, I am a Canadian Wheat Board supporter!

Meadow, 127829

Meadow is a terrific cat who deserves a terrific owner. She came to us in rough shape - scabby, old wound to her eye. Meadow has since healed up well. As she came in with another cat, so we imagine she'd be great in a home with another cat, after a proper introduction of course. Please consider adopting Meadow, or one of our other adoptable cats during our promotion! Promo fee includes all regular package perks except our 2-week health period.

Sparky, 127748

Sparky is sparkling with personality! This wonderful, 5 year old Blue Heeler/Terrier mix is fantastic on leash and has been a terrific ambassador to seniors' homes on visits. She was brought to us this summer after her owner left her behind with a friend but didn't return for her. She was pregnant & confused. Thankfully a wonderful foster family helped her raise her puppies & now Sparky now needs a home. She is most comfortable with adults (teens +15yrs+) & should go in someone comfortable with confident dogs. $150.00 fee includes her spay, vet exam, pet insurance & much more!

Where every adoptable dog finds a home and cats get a second chance at life!

The WHS needs your donations of canned cat food to help feed the many cats in our care. Drop off to 5 Kent Street.

Working Toward a Patient Wait Times Guarantee

As my constituents know, I served as Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Manitoba before entering federal politics. My provincial experience has given me some valuable perspective as I tackle federal justice issues. In fact, one of the key strengths of the Conservative cabinet is that many members have provincial government experience in their federal portfolios. For instance, I believe that our first budget was a huge success in part thanks to Jim Flaherty's provincial finance experience in Ontario.

Another of my colleagues with provincial experience in his federal portfolio is Health Minister Tony Clement. I had a chance to spend some time with Tony this past summer, in his beautiful riding of Parry Sound—Muskoka in Ontario. I know that he has strong, intimate knowledge of what works and what doesn't in our public health care system.

Our government understands that Canadians expect all levels of government to work together to get things done for families and taxpayers, including in the area of health care. They expect practical programs, properly managed. And Canadians want certainty that they won't have to wait too long for their health care — they want a guarantee.

Minister Clement made it clear that there is no quick way to fully implement this commitment. But the good news is that provinces have made great progress to be ready for such a guarantee, which is the next logical step in our health care system. They have tackled complex issues to reduce wait times, such as funding and developing technology and research, dealing with shortages of health human resources, and sharing information within the system.

Our government is working with provinces closely to move this progress further forward, to a guarantee. Over the summer, Minister Clement had discussions with Health Ministers from every province and territory to obtain their views on the opportunities and challenges they see in reducing Patient Wait Times. He also met with international Health Ministers from Denmark, Sweden, Mexico and France as he researched how other nations have been able to reduce wait times.

Already some provinces are achieving improved results. For example, Ontario reports reduced wait times in 8 of 9 benchmark areas being measured since 2005. Quebec is leading the way in guaranteeing timely access and recourse in three priority areas.

In terms of a Patient Wait Times Guarantee, Minister Clement is showing leadership — but the job isn't done just yet. We will continue to work with the provinces and territories to reduce wait times for Canadian families and taxpayers.

Please feel free to contact my office if you have any concerns or issues you would like to discuss. Ask the Neighbourhood Mechanic

by Dave Redinger

We have two cars in our household. I share them with my wife. One is a ten year old Buick and the second a Jeep Liberty. The only complaint I have in sharing a car is that the gal never puts the seat back! Every time I use the car, the seat is so close to the steering wheel I can't even get in. I have stand outside and draw the seat back just to climb in. Let me tell you, pulling the seat back on a cold winter morning is a real joy. I complain to no avail. So here's the deal....I would put the seat down in the house, if she would pull the seat back in the car when she was finished. So far it seems I'm the only one complying. Just a reminder: I'll be at Master Mechanic on November 30th in Scarborough for a car care clinic. Join us. It's free. Contact: Don Campbell at 416 282 7878 to register.

We have a 2002 GMC Safari van with 125k kms on the odometer. On a trip to Myrtle Beach this past summer, the A/C fan worked intermittently and I suspected a vacuum problem. The dealer found a cracked vacuum line. On the way home, the fan again worked for awhile and then quit (in 38C degree heat). I took it to a dealer in Virginia who diagnosed a failed resistor, replaced same with a new one with an improved design. Of course, fan again quit between Virginia and Ontario. Any suggestions you may have to restore normal operation would be greatly appreciated.

Garfield

We have run into this problem on several occasions. The interment failure you're describing usually originates in the high amperage plug the powers the blower. Over time the connectors degrade and loose conductivity. GM supplies a replacement plug. The GM # 15306007.

I was pull over in a spot check recently. The officer advised me that the vehicle was unsafe to drive because the windshield was badly cracked. Is he right or just being picky?

Zeb.

He's right. The windshield is structurally part of the vehicle. The glass acts a stiffener for the cowl and roof sections. More importantly the glass is part of the secondary restraint system (air bags). The windshield is used to support and direct the inflation cycle of the bag. If you are hesitating replacing the front glass I would reconsider. Your life may depend in it.

Love Gram, Linda, Amanda, Samantha & Darren

Wilde, Daniel (December 21, 1933)

In loving memory of a wonderful husband, father and grandfather who passed away two years ago, November 6th, 2004.

It's not the tears shed at the time that tells of the hearts that are broken.

It's the lonesome tears in the after years when a loved ones name is spoken.

To the world you may be forgotten to others just a part of the past, but to us that loved and lost you, the memories will last.

Memories we treasure no one can steal, death leaves a heart no one can heal.

Life goes on we know it's true, but it will never be the same since we lost you.

Lovingly remembered by your wife Bernice, children and grandchildren.

Poem for Ross November 4th, 2000

Memories are wonderful things, they never wear out, never get lost, and can never be given away.

To some, you may be forgotten, to others, part of the past, but to us, who loved and lost you, your memory will always last.

Always loved and missed, Mom & family
