Beach People

July was a busy month at the Bennett cottage at 312-8th. Glennis and Don were here from Vancouver with Sarah and Taryn, enjoying visits with friends and relatives. Cousins Briar and Bevin Boyko, Margaret and David Yellis, Sarah and Taryn Wilkinson enjoyed all the Beach events, as well as the grandkids party and the family celebration for Don's birthday on July 31st.

Welcome to Honeymoon Haven. Come and greet the newlyweds, Brenda (Bell) and Craig Anderson, Sunday August 11th from 7 - 9, 408 7th Avenue. Congratulations Boo and Wally.

Dog Day afternoon, July 31, a fashionable 5th Avenue garden was the digs for celebrating 98 ruff years in honour of Shuuya G. Rower. Following pin the spot on the dog and red rower, guests chowed down hot dogs and refreshments. After much hounding, the birthday biscuit was presented and the mosquito pinata was pawed. Wags present included Lana and Sasha Hastings; Christopher, Katie and Jamie Thomas; Joshua Rowson; Matthew, Stephanie and Shanny Meronek; Max, Raea and Colin Gooding; Chelsea Kaufmann, Jeremy and Adam Smukowitch; Rory and Dylan McMorris; Cloe and Francois Cramer; Krystle and Derek McPetrie; Fat Pat Carroll and Hobbie Cat Matt Peeler. Thanks to the chicken woman of V.B. for her fetching appearance. It was a howl!

A good time was had by all at the cottage of June and Bob Wall, 415 Fifth Avenue on Saturday June 20th. A surprise barbecue dinner party, hosted by Helen and Bob Williams to celebrate the 25th silver Wedding Anniversary of their daughter and son in law Cathy and Bob McInnes. Sincere thanks to June and Bob Wall for all their hard work and assistance, to the friends, neighbours and family for the delicious assortment of salads, to Diane Saltons for baking the cake and to Hilda Horne for making the memory book. All this made a happy and memorable occasion.

The Johnsons of 406 - 6th Avenue tested out the seating capacity of their veranda for dinner on Sunday, July 28. While Sheila and Lauren entertained Nicole, Danielle and Margot Picard and Laura Fabro, Fred and Mary hosted Lynne and Louis Picard and Rena and Robert Fabro. Nine month old Alina Fabro provided her own high chair. Earlier in the month, Edith McIntosh, Sheila and Lauren's Winnipeg granny, came to V.B. for a short visit. As the Beach was her summer home while she was growing up, she enjoys returning each year to see how things have changed and how they have stayed the same. The following week, Garry and Marlene Cahill with their daughter, Mary-Lou and son Jonathan arrived from Winnipeg. Lauren and Sheila 3 1/2, and Mary-Lou, 2 1/2 were kept busy keeping Jonathan 1 1/2 out of trouble.

Wes and Susan Peters hosted the first annual fish fry at their cottage on Zeglinski Cres. on August 4. The twenty five invited guests enjoyed the fish caught by Elizabeth, Christa, Lindsay and Wes over the course of the summer. Leonard and Maria Rigo hosted the coffee and horseshoes that followed. All present are planning on encouraging the family to keep on fishing.

In honour of Miss Karen Cyr, a September bride elect of Scott Reid, a luncheon shower was held at the home of Lucile and Tom Kitchur, 301 8th Avenue on Sunday August 4. A matched bedding ensemble was presented. Guests attending came from Winnipeg, Patricia Beach and Victoria Beach and the bride's mother, Norma, from Tyndall. Karen spent many summers with her grandparents Miriam and Eric Bergman on 211 - 4th Avenue and was recreation assistant here in the summer of 1986.

The gravel pit played host to about 40 members of the broke and hustled trail riders on the August long weekend. They rode to Elk Island and thoroughly enjoyed the beauty of the neighbourhood.

The Boyd's Nest at 451 Sunset became the nesting place for migrant visitors from east and west during the last two weeks. The Fyffe family — Pat, Wayne and daughters Sharyl, Carolyn and Jennifer (just what Stephen needed — more girls!) from Irontford, Ontario enjoyed a return visit at the end of July. A highlight of their visit was a hike through Elk Island and the blueberries picked by Pat and Karin on the way. The August long week end brought the Lindgrins — Ula and Mera from Port Coquitlam, just in time for the annual barbeque at Culroy. They particularly enjoyed the golf course and have managed to convert our Mom, Erwine Prevailing, a.k.a. Oma, a frequent resident at 451 to the game.

Paul Moore and Susan Swan with their son Graydon Allan Moore (9 months) of Toronto, had a lovely visit with grandparents Vivian and Allan Moore at 504 - 4th Ave.

They had wonderful reunions with old friends and also with David Moore who came from Mexico City to enjoy the blue skies of Victoria Beach.

They are all looking forward to their return visit.

Concern Corner

I had a letter this week about an accident on the swings on the village green, but by Sunday all the swings were gone. Maybe adults shouldn't play on children's play equipment.

Recreation News

Once again the adult round robin tennis held July 29th resulted in a tie. With 5 wins and 0 losses were Karen Jaeger and George Greengrass, and George Gilmour and Vic Garden. The August 2nd match also had a tie between the teams of Elsie Hughes and Don Dyma and Maureen Swystun and Chris Fricke.

Tennis note — Teen Round Robins on Thursday evenings have been cancelled due to lack of participation.

After a great start to the adult volleyball earlier in the season, it seems that our participation is on the decline. Let's get off the couch and come out this Friday at 8:00 p.m. for an hour or so of "fun" volleyball.

THANK-YOU
DEREK SOKALSKI
RECREATION DIRECTOR

Wanasing Annual Meeting

The cottage owners association from Wanasing Beach held their annual meeting and family picnic on Sunday August 4th. The volunteer fire brigade was on hand with the fire truck and rescue vehicle. While the kids dressed in the firemen's clothes and practiced the fine art of extinguishing fires, the adults held their annual meeting. The current executive was acclaimed for another two year period. The main issue appears to be the ongoing search for water service.

A picnic of hot dogs and drinks were ready when the meeting adjourned.

Message

To the most daring and clever thief who stole from my golf bag 8 matched irons and 1 N.W. bronzed putter from space #57 in Shack 1, congratulations. I hope you improve your game and that one of the shafts break and the club face removes your teeth.

Adult Mixed Volleyball

Sure hope you took advantage of the long weekend to talk up the Adult mixed Volleyball Tournament scheduled for Saturday, August 24.

If you are feeling a little rusty, come join the fun at Adult Volleyball on Friday evenings from 8:00 - 9:00.

Watch the Herald for more information next week or contact Pat Peacock Lont 2 Hampton Haven.

Bridge

Where does the time go? Here we are with just three more Bridge Mondays left this season. Come and join us; you're sure to be welcome. On July 29th there were 8 tables of regular players and 15 social/beginners. It was really encouraging to see so many bridge enthusiasts turn out.

High scorer on the 29th was Charlie Harvey with 5270 and runner up was Doodie Dennehy with 4900.

Dog's Day Afternoon (Special Morning Edition)

Almost 60 champs strutted through the Victoria Beach "Hall of Glory" on Sunday, July 28. Of those 60, 17 aspired to greater fame by competing in the Stupid Pet Tricks Contest. A new competition, the Stupid Pet-owners Tricks, saw 2 winners involuntarily selected by our panel of hermetically-sealed celebrity guest judges. A stunning array of fabulous dogs was bestowed upon the two winners:

- 1st prize the owner of Karly and Brandy
2nd prize the owner of Samantha

The names of these winners have not been used in order to protect their families and preserve their amateur status as future winging contestants on Ed McMahon's Star Search.

In addition to the 60 dogs, there were many, many more guests and spectators in the studio audience. Our guest announcer, Doug Pardoe, was also pleased to award some truly wonderful prizes to the top six award winners in Stupid Pet Tricks.

1st Karly and Brandy — The Singing Schnauzers — The Narunski Family

2nd Fergus — Shake-a-paw and push-ups — Christy Peters
3rd Scruffy — Rolled over, played dead, rolled over, etc. — Krystle and Derek McPetrie

4th WWF — Wolf Wolf Federation Wrestling featuring the Macho Radical Destroyer and the Hulkster Junkster Machine a.k.a. Kelsy and Jeb trained by Rick Hagenars and Joanne Jaegar

5th Jingle — jumped over knees and danced in circles — Maireen Kops

6th Cinders — Belly Crawl — Brian and Bevin Boyko

It was a difficult task for our three judges to narrow down the finalists so our own Dog Parade showered more valuable merchandise from our generous sponsors on all of the contestants in the Stupid Pet Tricks. The judges give honorable mentions to all of them:

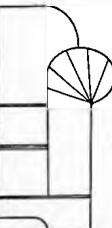

Cojo — Dances and Kisses
Pete — Spin Dance
Angus — dance
Vivienne — dance with nail polish on paws (we are not making this up)

Britain — play dead
Jasper — pain in the neck (this was actually quite good)
Bandit — jumping kisses
Samantha — lay 5, lay 10, then speak
Bernie — rock rolling
Wylie — sit and shake a paw

A very heartfelt thanks goes out to our many sponsors and volunteers that helped make Dog Day Afternoon '91 very enjoyable for all involved. All prize winners will be sure to attest to the quality and quantity of the sponsored donations. Our sponsors were very generous to the V.B. Dog Show, so please patronize their wares, services and entertainment.

Thanks to Molson Breweries, KY58 Radio, Winnipeg Football Club, Ralston Purina, Imperial Seed, Clip'n'Time, Anderson pet Grooming, Club Canine, Honey Comb, and Petland.

Thanks also to Rhonda Hart of the Winnipeg Sun for giving the V.B. Dog Show a plug. Thank you again to our panel of guest judges who spent the weekend at V.B. preparing for the event: Bob and Kerry Raffey and Mark Kurjata. Kerry was also kind enough to donate the use of his Bull Mastiff, Lunker, to provide security in case of any outbreak of dogfights. Bob Raffey's long lost son, Steve Raffey, arrived in time for the post ride to Grand Beach.

Victoria Beach Club Fundraiser

Can you trace a pattern? use scissors? operate a sewing machine? A group of the tennis playing community has volunteered to make a hand sewn quilt to raffie with proceeds to be given to the Victoria Beach Club. Previous quilting experience is not necessary. Any member of our beach community who would like to participate is welcome. On the first rainy weekday morning, come to Barb Duke's cottage at 202 Fifth Avenue at 10 a.m. and bring the sharpened scissors from your cottage. For more information call Barb at 756-8619 or Dawn Kirbyson of 338 Fifth at 756-2879 or in Winnipeg 488-8349. There will also be lots to do in the fall.

If you could help in town, but not at the beach, please let us know.

Cross Country Run Results

Almost 40 of V.B.'s dedicated and not so dedicated runners assembled at the sports field on July 27th; a perfect Saturday morning for the annual Cross-country run. This year the run became a "National Event" with an entry by the Fyffes of Branford, Ontario in the Family Team Category.

Thanks to Derek and Pat Fyffe for their assistance, as well as the four Boyds who were dragged out of bed early Saturday morning and conscripted to help run this event.

Congratulations to all the participants all of whom ran a great race: winners all!

Masters Tennis Tournament

This year the Masters Tournament was separated from the Open Tournament on a trial basis. It was compressed into two days instead of the usual three day spar. There were 93 participants and most of these played in more than one event. This meant a very heavy playing schedule, which combined with the heat and "V.B. flu" took its toll on the competitors. Our heavy congratulations to all players for their patience, good sportsmanship and excellent standard of tennis.

The results of the Masters Tournament events are as follows:
Ladies 40+ Singles S. Lawler defeated B. Duke
Men 40+ Singles D. Wilkinson defeated D. Drybrough
Ladies 40+ Doubles C. Drybrough/R. Garden defeated J. Bushuk/J. Wersh
Men 40+ Doubles D. Wilkinson/T. Richardson defeated H. Hasenack/K. Capelle
Mixed 40+ Doubles B. & S. Lawler defeated D. & G. Wilkinson
Ladies 55+ Doubles J. McCuaig/B. Suderman defeated J. Wersh/R. Garden
Men 55+ Doubles G. Gilmour/V. Garden defeated J. Donovan/D. Quinton
Mixed 55+ Doubles W. & J. Gushuk defeated V. & R. Garden

Congratulations to all our finalists for providing such high quality and entertaining matches.

As tournament directors we thank George and Iris Gilmour for all their hard work, without which we could not have run this event. We took the liberty of presenting them with personalized tournament T-shirts as an expression of thanks from the V.B. tennis community. Our appreciation also goes to Les Carter for his invaluable help with the thankless chore of checking memberships and collecting the fees.

We have received both positive and negative reactions to this trial separation of tournaments. We would welcome all feedback so that the tennis committee can make appropriate decisions for next year. Any comments can be given to us at 123 Birch or to the Gilmours at 121 Birch.

Recycling News

The dozen faithful recyclers came out on Monday afternoon at 1 p.m. to the recycling shed by the Fire Hall and worked through mounds of plastic and aluminum. We have been able to sort out about 400 beer cans a week. The sorting crew thank you all for the care you take in preparing your recyclables. Most people are taking off the lids from the plastic bottles, carefully packaging glass and in general making our job quite easy. We managed to finish just before the rain storm struck although as I left, most sorters were standing in the shed, waiting for the rain to stop.

Lost: 5 iron mashie #5 late Friday afternoon, August 2 on hole 4 or 5 of the V.B. Golf course. If found please return to V.B. Pro Shop or to Lot #6 McCord Drive. The club has great sentimental value.
